City Trustees Hold A Busy Session

All the members of the Board were present at the monthly meeting of the Carmel-by-the-Sea City Trustees on Tuesday night.

Considerable of the time of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of a report, submitted by Trustees Taylor and de Sabla, concerning a proposition presented by T. B. Reardon for the erection of a municipal office building at the corner of Ocean avenue and Lincoln street, just south of the Library. The plan under consideration contemplates the rental of a one-story building, 25x40, properly petitioned into offices; to be leased for three years, at a monthly rental of $20. The matter was taken under advisement.

Owing to an error in publication, Ordinance No. 2 was ordered republished in the Pine Cone.

On each of his several visits here, Mr. Albert Bonnheim, banker and philanthropist, who passed away recently in San Francisco, endeared himself to numbers of folks here.

Mrs. Harry Decker has returned from a ten days' visit with friends and relatives in San Francisco.

The local hotels, as well as the cottages, were fairly well filled up during the holidays.

Perry Newberry and wife are down the Coast, where they will have their home—far from the disturbing crowd.

C. S. Beck, brother of Dr. J. E. Beck, is here from Kattanning, Pa. He has assumed charge of the local bowling alleys and billiard hall, which is being put in first-class shape.

Prof. A. F. Lange and family are here from Berkeley, and will remain until about the middle of the month.

After nearly two years' absence, Garnet Holme, a little heavier, but no older, and with a distinguished looking crop of facial scenery, arrived in our midst last week.

Miss Helen Freeland, a former visitor here, with Mrs. Helen Hunt, is occupying the Rice cottage.

Miss Etna Guichard is here from Ben Lomond for an indefinite visit with her sister.

Mrs. F. H. Blackman of Palo Alto departs this week for home. She has thoroughly enjoyed her sojourn here.

The local public school, following a vacation of three weeks, opened on Tuesday. The chicken-pox having gone the rounds, there was nearly a full attendance.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Hare, was baptised on New Year's day by Rev. D. Charles Gardner, at the residence of R. G. Maxtone-Graham, his fond grandfather. William Graeme will precede the surname of the little man. The child wore a frock in which his great grandfather was christened, and the vessel containing the baptismal water was used for the grandfather's baptism.

This number of the Pine Cone marks the change of the day of issue from Wednesday to Thursday.

Dr. A. E. Irving, who resided here for a short time, now located in Berkeley, with his wife and two sisters, was a visitor here last week.

Roy Newberry, manager of Pine Inn, went up to San Jose on business recently.

Prof. Henry C. Cowles, of the University of Chicago, one of the best authorities in matters concerning forestry, is here with his family.

Prof. R. M. Alden and his family from Stanford University occupied their cottage here last week.

The Fish-Kimballs of Palo Alto were among the Carmel holiday sojourners.

Contractor S. J. Wyatt will shortly begin the construction of a three-division garage for the Schweningers.

The Carmel Fire Department has purchased at S. J. Wyatt's store 12 axes, 12 shovels, and several lanterns—all of high grade quality.

Dhan Gopal Mukerji, Hindu poet and philosopher, who, in his month's sojourn here, has made many friends, leaves this week to resume his academic duties at Stanford. He will come again.

Miss Agnes Sweasey and Miss Dulcie Waiden came to Carmel to see the old year out.

PEBBLE BEACH ITEMS

Work on the picturesque new 6500-yard golf field is well under way, and will probably be ready for use in the spring. Pipes are now being laid for drainage and seeding. It will be an 18 hole course.

The twenty-two new apartments connected with the Lodge at Pebble Beach will shortly be ready for occupancy, though the formal opening will not occur until late this month. The heating and lighting systems have been installed. Mrs. DeWolf is in charge of the furnishing and decorating. The furnishings will be supplied by Sloane. The picturesque situation of the apartments is being made additionally attractive by the building of terraces leading up from a stone wall.

4. Commissioner of Fire and Police.

The President of the Board shall be the Commissioner of Finance.

Section 2. All business brought before the Board shall be referred to the appropriate commissioner for his investigation, report and recommendation in reference thereto, before any action shall be taken thereon by the Board as a whole, except the business in question be of special urgency or of such nature that it may be disposed of immediately. Upon a four-fifths vote of the Board any Commissioner may be required to report his recommendations in writing.

Section 3. Ordinances may be given their first reading upon their introduction by reading the title only. Second reading shall be in full unless dispensed with by unanimous vote, and the third reading upon final passage of the ordinance may be by title only unless a full reading is again requested by a majority of the members.

Section 4. The minutes of the Board of Trustees or journal of their proceedings required to be kept by the Clerk shall be neatly typewritten in a special looseleaf journal book, with each of the different kinds of business transacted set off in paragraphs with proper sub-heads.

Until a substantial fire-proof vault has been provided for keeping the public records, the Clerk shall keep the original copies of all ordinances and wherever possible, copies of all other official records, in a fire-proof safe deposit box or boxes which he is hereby authorized to lease for that purpose.

Section 5. The Commissioners of Finance, Streets, Sidewalks and Parks and Water and Light, shall constitute the auditing committee who shall examine and approve all bills in writing before the same may be paid.

Section 6. The following shall constitute the order of business to be followed in conducting the regular meetings of the Board.

Any citizen may arise and address the Board on any business specially concerning them or effecting their interests, but preference will be given to those who have first presented matters in the form of a written communication or who have personally notified the President of the Board of Trustees of their desire to speak.

The members of the Board shall remain seated while participating in discussions and at all times during any meeting; they shall address their remarks to the President and other members of the board and not to the citizens who may happen to be in attendance.

The regular order of business may be suspended by a majority vote for the accommodation of non-residents who may have business before the Board, or for any other purpose.

Section 7. Any member or other person using profane, vulgar, loud or boisterous language at any meeting, or otherwise interrupting the proceedings, who refuse to be seated or kept quiet when ordered so to do by the President or President pro tem. of the Board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not to exceed Twenty five Dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding ten days. It shall be the duty of the Marshal, upon order of the presiding officer, to eject any such member or person from the boardroom.

Section 8. In case a quorum should not be present at any meeting and important business remains to be transacted or disposed of, any two members of the board may cause a written notice to be served personally upon the other members directing their immediate attendance, whereupon the members receiving such written notice shall be required to attend immediately except in case of sickness or death in their immediate family, otherwise they shall be liable to a fine, penalty or forfeiture to the city in the sum of Twenty five Dollars, recoverable by a civil action in the Recorder's Court.

Section 9. Any member of the Board of Trustees who refuses to attend four consecutive meetings, when neither sick or absent from the city at the time said meetings were held, shall be deemed to have forfeited his title to the office of trustee, and the remaining members or a majority thereof may cause an action to be brought in the Superior Court to have his office declared vacant.

Section 10. The proceedings of the board shall be governed under "Robert's Rules of Order" on all matters pertaining to parliamentary law, but no ordinance, resolution, proceeding or other action of the board, shall be invalidated or the legality thereof otherwise effected by the failure or omission to observe or follow said rules.

Section 11. All notices of special meetings must be delivered personally to the members of the Board of Trustees in the time, form and manner provided by law.

The Board purchasdd lawfully required record books for municipal accounts to the value of approximately $200, the same to be paid for when funds are available.

The Fire Committee, as the result of an interview with officials of the Monterey Co. Water Works, reported that it was planned to install, shortly, six-inch mains on Ocean avenue and on Monte Verde street.

Following an executive session, the matter of the appointment of a City Recorder was taken up. H. L. Warren received the unanimous vote of the board for the position. No other appointments were made.

The establishment of a budget, based upon a probable income of $3600 a year, was informally discussed. It was the general sentiment that business licenses should not be imposed upon permanently established businesses. There will be a license on dogs.

The board will meet again next Tuesday evening.

Seeing the New Year In

The manner of celebrating the advent of a new year is most democratic. There are no hard and fast rules, no conventions to be observed, and precedent is forgotten.

In Carmel, when both hands of the clock were on 12 on Sunday night, a tale is told of a resident who was awakened by the clangor of the school bell. She arose, rolled a cigarette, had a smoke, and returned to her downy couch.

Another story has it that just as the balls began to ring, the hostess of a gay party seated herself at the piano and softly played a hymn. She turned around to observe the effect upon her guests, and found them blissfully "ragging" to her hymn, "Bringing in the Sheaves."

To Subscribers

The prices of paper, ink, and other materials entering into the producing of a newspaper continue to advance.

Beginning with No. 1, Vol. III, on February 1, 1917, the subscription price of the Pine Cone will be $1.50 a year.

It will continue to be the aim of the publisher of the Pine Cone to issue a journal worthy of the city it represents; as the city grows, the paper will grow.

Tests for Citizenship

Federal Judge K. M. Landis is quoted as saying that if the United States is to maintain inviolate its traditions and institutions as a free government it must require of applicants for citizenship at least a reasonable conception of the spirit of our institutions and a willingness to absorb and abide by them.

This is the most sensible declaration on this matter that we have seen. The government of the United States is now suffering for the laxity of many years in its immigration laws and the manner of their administration.

It is undeniable that the admission of large numbers of ignorant and criminal foreigners has had its effect upon our institution. Many of these people come to this country imbued with ideas wholly at variance with our form of government. The idea of Judge

Pertinent Pointers on Advertising

By L. F. O.

"Advertising should be judged only by the goods it is conclusively known to sell, at a given cost."

To prove most effective, a complete advertisement should attract favorable attention, awaken interest, create desire, carry conviction, inspire confidence, and influence the reader to buy.

The three general component parts of most advertisements are:

COPY—Manuscript or printed matter to be reproduced in type set by a compositor or operator;

DISPLAY—The arrangement of the dark and light parts of the advertisements, the various sizes and styles of type, the words, lines, rules, and borders, to get the proper contrast between them, so that the advertisement will attract proper attention and its important features stand out prominently.

ILLUSTRATION—Anything that is in the nature of a picture—anything that is not made up of type matter, of rules, of borders.

Copy is generally divided into two classes:

REMINING copy—Which exploits, before the public, a statement, idea, trademark, name, or a combination of two or more of these in a brief way. Examples:

"TIME TO RE-TIRE?"

"CLIMB, the I. C. S. way."

"Always welcome—A year's subscription to the Pine Cone."

REASON-WHY copy—Is creative, informing, or salesmanship copy. Its aim is to create a desire for, convince the reader that he needs, and impels him to purchase the article or service advertised. It tends to make the sale at once rather than at some future time. Examples:

"I had a corn which bothered me for years. It spoiled a hundred evenings. Nothing in my life had yielded such a sum of pain. I did what all do—pared it, daubed it. But it caused more soreness than I saved in pain and the corn remained. Then I bought a bottle of Wisharts Corn Eradicator—price 25c, and the corns disappeared."

"L'Art Moderne en peut rien ajouter de plus au parfum, que je n'en ai apparté à ma conception suprême, le Djer-Kiss."

Translation: Modern art can bring no more to perfume than I have brought to my supreme conception, Djer-Kiss.

Make your advertisements talk

Why dig down in your jeans to pay for white space unless your advertisement pays you?

And what's the use of stopping your ads, and saying, "Oh, advertising doesn't pay," when I can write small display ads for you that will make the $$$ fairly roll in your pocketbook?

La Playa Personals

The social evening on December 28th was a great success. Mrs. Signor regrets that although a general notice inviting all denominations as well as cottage residents was placed in our local paper, few save her own church people were present. Refreshments were served at 10:30.

With so many beautiful girls at La Playa, including the talented dancer, Miss Laura Lee, the informal dance of January 1 was a particularly jolly affair.

Twelve members of the Sierra Walking Club reached La Playa after lunch on December 31st, to spend New Years.

Professor Henry C. Cowles, of the University of Chicago left for Santa Barbara and Tucson last Friday. He will reach home about February 1. Harriet Cowles, a charming youngster, endeared herself to all La Playa, and is much missed. We enjoyed her farewell, "Too soon I shall be at Tucson." Not bad for a four-year-older.

Many Social Affairs During the Past Week

Birthday Party

On last Wednesday evening Franklin Murphy was invited by his father to take a little auto ride. He accepted. Meantime, a number of the little man's playmates gathered at the Basham home on Mission street. When the auto arrived there, the lights were out, but when Franklin walked in the lights and the surprise party were on. These were the children who greeted the little 13-year-older: Dorothy Moore, Helen and Waldo Hicks, Vere Basham, Hilda and Helen Hilliard, Andrew and Tom Gillett, Phyllis Overstreet, Marvin, Elizabeth and Jimmy Hopper, Fay Murphy, Inez Praties, Bernice Place, Marnee Williams.

Pebble Beach Lodge

The passing of 1916 and the coming of the new year was accompanied by gay and festive entertainment at the Pebble Beach Lodge. Host McCabe saw to it that there was not a dull nor idle interval for the many who participated in the year-end celebration, and the affair has set a new standard for Lodge entertainments.

All Saints Sunday School

The children of All Saints Sunday school were royally entertained at the beautiful Watts home last Thursday afternoon. Aided by a number of elders, the kiddies were made happy in many ways. There was a splendidly decorated tree, a goodly supply of refreshments, singing, and games. Each child carried home one or more gifts. Among the children present were: Louise and David Prince, Betty, Alice, Ann, and Gordon Green, Hilda and Helen Hilliard, Phyllis Overstreet, Jack Harbinger, Dana and Smith Newberry, Henry Pudan, David Williamson, Gwendolin Adams.

Arts and Crafts Club

On the afternoon of New Year's day "fair women and brave men,"—no, there was but one man—responded to the invitation to attend the reception of the Carmel Club of Arts and Crafts. A receiving committee was on hand early to welcome the guests and exchange the season's greetings. During the afternoon an informal program of reading and singing was given by Mrs. Sydney Yard, Mrs. F. C. Pudan, and Mrs. M. H. Bremner. Dainty refreshments were served.

Darwall Farewell Reception

When the Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Darwall depart for their new home in Michigan they will take with them a recollection of the splendid farewell reception tendered them last evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. W. Johnson. Not only the parishoners of All Saints here were in attendance but a number of townspeople and friends called to pay their respects and tender good wishes.

St. Anne's Guild

In response to the invitation of the ladies of St. Anne's Guild, a large number of townspeople and visitors were present at La Playa on Thursday to enjoy an informal social evening. An interesting event was the talk by Dhan Gopal Mukerji, the Hindu poet, describing the manner of life and philosophy of the people of India. Mrs. Mabel Gray Young charmed with two new songs. Dancing, card-playing and refreshments rounded out the evening. All are grateful to Mrs. Signor for her hospitality.

Bath House Christmas Party

On Saturday evening the Carmel Bath House was the scene of a jolly gathering of young and grown children, brought together by the Christmas tree social of the Methodist Sunday school. The committee in charge of the affair had made every provision to insure everybody a good time, and no one was disappointed. There was gift-giving, singing, corn-popping, and, what is dear to the youngsters, plenty of sweets.

Manzanita Club

It is no exaggeration to affirm that Saturday night's "little affair" was the most successful year end social event ever given by the club. Only on this occasion the usual order was reversed, the ladies of the club members had things in charge. To use the expression of one of the men, "You've got to hand it to the ladies for a good time." Early in the evening the members and their guests gathered about the big fire-place for comfort and conversation, so that by the time the whist playing began everybody was "warmed up." The prize winners were Mrs. Florence Hicks and Dr. J. E. Beck, and the "boobs" were Mrs. F. C. Pudan and Henry Larouette. It was almost mid-night when refreshments were served, but they were worth waiting for. The abalone chowder alone was worth the price of admission, to say nothing of the other good things provided. And there was plenty.

At the C. U. I. Studio

Mother Carrington's annual holiday affair is an institution. To a large number of children—and a few grown-ups—Christmas would not be Christmas at all were this event not held. On New Year's night the little music studio was crowded with those for whom many plans and pleasures had been worked out. Every year Mrs. Carrington conceives a novel gift for her children, and this year the article was a scrap book portfolio, containing hand-painted envelopes.

It was nearly 12 o'clock when the party broke up, but it was necessary to remain late to crowd in the musical program, the gift giving, and refreshments.
