VOL. 2, NO. 51

To Complete the Wonderful Coast Road, From Carmel-by-the-Sea to San Luis Obispo, State and Federal Appropriations Must Now be Forthcoming

Stong efforts are to be made to secure from the California Legislature, now in session, an appropriation of a sum which will make possible the building of a connecting link in the wonderful coast highway from Carmel-by-the-Sea to San Luis Obispo.

With the official assistance of Senator E. S. Rigdon and Assemblyman W. J. Martin, our representatives in the Legislature, backed up by Boards of Supervisors and promotion bodies of Monterey and San Luis Obispo counties, the desired object can be attained.

For a long time this project has been uppermost in the mind of Dr. Roberts, our tireless promoter of good highway construction. He says:

"This coast road proposition is of the most vital concern to the Monterey peninsula. Situated as we are, off to one side of the main thoroughfare, the completion of a coast scenic road to San Luis Obispo would put Carmel and Monterey on the map, to the end that they will get a large portion of automobile tourist traffic that does not come our way now."

Scenic attractions is what California visitors desire, and there is not in all the world a stretch of road that begins to compare in this respect to that for which appropriations from the State and the federal government are sought.

Carmel-by-the-Sea, within which stands the historic old Mission, and where rests the body of the noble Serra, will actually be the entry way into this God-given beauty spot. Every auto party, traveling in either direction, must pass through our city.

It should be borne in mind that Monterey county has expended more than $200,000 between Posts and the city of Monterey, a distance of forty miles. Only last year, work, which included the building of a number of bridges, to the value of $20,000 was done.

Further work to complete this wonderful scenic road must be done by the State and national government.

Boards of Supervisors, City Trustees, and other organizations of the two counties must get behind the project with strong endorsements, and enlist the support of outside organizations.

The connecting road would extend from Posts to San Simon in San Luis Obispo county, a distance of about sixty-nine miles. The cost to put the road in condition for automobile travel will be something like $4000 a mile, not including macadamizing.

The valuable influence of various interests can be obtained in furthering the plan. Congress should assist, as fifty miles of the highway will pass through a National Forest, which will facilitate the protection of the forest from fire and flood. The War Department would have a valuable adjunct to coast defense.

Merced, Fresno, and Kings counties may be counted upon for support. The cross-country highway from Coalinga to San Lucas, now being surveyed, will make the coast easily accessible.

The support of the California Development Board, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, the State Highway Commission, the State Fish and Game Commission, the Tourist Association of Central California, and a number of other influential organizations, is assured.

Ford Should Worry

Last Wednesday afternoon, while out for a pleasure drive with a party of Carmel friends, the Ford car which Rev. Walter Moffatt, the rector of All Saints, was driving, took fire, as the result of the gasoline tank exploding.

Fortunately those in the car got out without injury. Several cyress trees close to the blazing machine were badly scorched. R. J. McCabe, of Pebble Beach, near which the incident occurred, assisted in extinguishing the fire. The car can be repaired.

Two Pictures

A great army of women in white against a background of red geraniums, is the picture of the Belgian women which Mrs. Charlotte Kellogg paints as the result of her observations on her visits to the relief centers in the stricken country. Her appreciation of what has been done by the women for the needy people is "beyond expression."

"There are many horrible things, but there are also many truly beautiful things side by side with the horrible," says Mrs. Kellogg. "Class barriers have been utterly destroyed, and these women will never forget that they are all equal in their capacity to serve."

City Trustees Meet For the Third Session This Month

One regular meeting and two adjourned meetings is the January record so far of our City Trustees. Much necessary and important business has been accomplished, and there remains plenty still to do.

A brief report of last Tuesday night's proceedings is here given:

A petition was read from the Arts and Crafts Club asking that streets in the vicinity of the club hall be improved. A reply stating that no street work is contemplated just now will be sent.

T. B. Reardon's proposition to erect a building for the city was discussed and tabled for the present.

H. G. Jorgensen of Monterey was unanimously elected City Attorney. His salary will be $20 a month.

Clerk J. E. Nichols administered the oath of office to August England, recently appointed City Marshal.

Ordinances Nos. 3, 4, and 5 were passed. The latter two are printed elsewhere in this issue. No. 3 is an amendment to No. 1, previously printed.

The matter of securing data for the ultimate establishment of official grades was placed in the hands of Trustee Beardsley.

A printed form claim blank was adopted.

Adjourned, to meet Tuesday, January 24.

A Worthy Profession

During the recent campaign Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hughes gave their approval of the proposal to place all postmasters under the civil service law.

It is now announced that the Postoffice Department is working the plan out. The change would affect 9192 postmasters, and at once establish the post-office business upon a systematic basis. In other words, all postoffices would be taken out and kept out of politics.

The business of being a postmaster could be made a career, the same as in the diplomatic and the other services. Men and women could enter the department under the civil service regulations, and profit by promotion as in the army and navy.

The postoffices of the country have been made more efficient since the introduction of the merit system. Under the proposed plan the highest efficiency would be attained.

CARMEL ASTONISHED BY MERCHANT'S STORY

A merchant relates the following:
"For years I could not sleep without turning every hour. Whatever I ate caused gas and sourness. Also had stomach catarrh. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka relieved me INSTANTLY." Because Adler-i-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICK-EST action of anything we ever sold. ## Save the Abalone

Sacramento, Jan. 10.—The abalone must be preserved, protected and otherwise defended against crass commercialism. So say the highbrows of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

A petition to the State Legislature, signed by John Kenneth Turner, Fred Bechdolt and James Hopper, among others asks the State law-makers to enact legislation which will establish a three-mile limit, extending from Pt. Pinos to the Carmel River.

The petition points out that abalone fishermen are rapidly depleting the supply of abalones at Carmel, and asks for laws which will restrict the taking of more than fifteen abalones from the waters of the bay each week for each fisherman. The signers of the petition declare that the abalone is one of the star features of the artist community. Senator Rigdon has the matter in charge in the upper house.

School of Dramatic Art

Mrs. Sydney Yard will read two short plays next Thursday, January 25, at her studio. The plays chosen are Lady Gregory's "The Canavans," and the "Golden Doom," by Lord Dunsany.

The Music Club met on Tuesday of this week. The subject for the afternoon was Haydn, and the Sonata Form. The club will meet at 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoons hereafter.

In Little Old New York

The program of children's plays given at the Coban & Harris Theatre by Miss Alice Minnie Herts, Miss Katherine Lord and Jacob Heniger, proved well chosen on the whole, although Lady Gregory's "Traveling Man," turned out to be rather too mystical for the youngsters.

For thrills there was "Editha's Burglar," Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's story. "Merry Christmas, Daddy," by Mrs. Mary Austin, was a fantasy suited to its purpose with its modern Scrooge, a little son who yearns for holly and gifts, a comfortable Negro mammy and a lot of story book people who bind up Scrooge until he sees why he should give his son the joys of the season.—Exchange.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Garnet Holme writes interestingly on Community Drama in a recent issue of "Recreation League Bulletin," a copy of which has been received by the Pine Cone.

G. F. Weaver, who has been employed at Pine Inn for several months, left on Tuesday with his family for southern California, there to locate.

Mrs. Lewie Lewis and little son came down from San Jose last week for a brief visit.

Col. W. R. McIntosh, who recently got out a publication setting forth the virtues of the Monterey peninsula as an all-the-year-round resort, was a visitor here on Monday.

Mr. Charles Josselyn, father of the Josselyn boys, well acquainted to many local residents, passed away at Pasadena last Friday. Death was caused by blood-poisoning, the result of water on the knee.

An Involuntary Bath

At Monterey, last Thursday, while awaiting the arrival of the noon train, "Dad" Hamilton, sitting on the wharf, endeavoring to evolve a plan to force people who owe him money to "come through," fell into the cold waters of Monterey Bay. He was fished out by a couple of Japs, who found him clinging to a pile (wooden). When he came to he found himself at a sanatorium in New Monterey. He was later taken to a hospital in Salinas, and is progressing nicely.

A Recommendation

Says the Monterey American: "Carmel-by-the-Sea is putting on some style. Here first move is to secure for City Marshal the best chief of Police that Monterey ever had in the person of Gus Englund.

The Dickens!

Mr. and Mrs. Mantalene, Mr. and Mrs. Squeers and their charming daughter Fanny, Sairey Gamp, Betsy Prig, Mr. Pecksniff with Charity and Mercy, and other old friends will pass in review at the Dickens birthday celebration to be held on February 9 at Arts and Crafts Hall.

An Affair of Honor

The friends of Miss E. A. McLean consulted together one day last week and made plans to surprise her on her birthday Thursday evening. While the lady was away on an errand, these friends gathered at the Aucourt cabin, and when the lady to be honored returned, she was requested to see if the fire in the cabin was O K. Imagine the rest. Those invited:

Mrs. C. Clark, Mrs. H. Aucourt, Mrs. R. H. Ohm, Mrs. F. C. Pudan, Mrs. L. H. Rusk, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Stevin, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cverstreet, Miss M. Clark, Misses Etna and Stella Guichard, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Waterbury.

Forerunners of Spring

Indian warriors, wild lilac, iris, pussy willows, poppies, shooting stars and foot-steps of spring.

The hills and valleys and fields and canyons in Carmel-by-the-Sea and vicinity are beginning to don their colorful spring garments. Already a number of boxes of wild flowers have been sent from here by mail and express. The early rains have brought the flowers sooner than usual this year. Before long the search of fairy-lantern seekers will be rewarded. Last year this lovely species did not make its appearance until the middle of March.

Butcher H. L. Warren having been appointed City Recorder, exact justice will be meted out.

PAINT YOUR ROOFS NOW

Winter is here. Protect your Buildings and valuable contents against the coming storms. Where possible, your painting should be done before the rains begin.

A coat of paint applied now to the roofs—either prepared (sometimes called paper) shingles, galvanized iron or tin—of your house, barns, garage, or other buildings, will not only improve the general appearance of your place, but will add years to the life of your buildings.

PABCO PAINT

in three colors—Black, Red, and Green—is made expressly for roofs by THE PARAFFINE PAINT COMPANY, the largest manufacturers of preservative and waterproof paints in the West, and is the result of more than thirty years' experience in the manufacture of paints suitable for California climatic conditions.

See our window display of PABCO PAINTS, and let us show you how little it will cost to paint your roofs.

THE HANDY FARM PAINT

Protect the Home Stores

The Carmel Trustses should impose a heavy license upon outside peddlers and agents who infest this city. These people have no interest here other than to take money out of the community. Local merchants should be protected.

Don't Put It Off

The Manzanita Club masque ball takes place on February 17. Now is the time to plan for your costume. Do not wait until a few days before the event and then have to scurry around for a suitable costume.

Pine Needles

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grabbill are away for a brief time, having left on Saturday on a matter of business.

W. T. Lee, a Monterey business man, was a Carmel visitor last Saturday.

Tomorrow afternoon Saint Annes Guild will meet with Mrs. Hughes, at the Stevens cottage.

John K. Turner left for the East last week. Mrs. Turner and Juanita are in Pasadena.

D. P. Talbott, for twelve years a member of the Monterey county board of supervisors, was recently elected chairman of that body.

George Hooper has graduated from Lowell high school, and is third on the waiting list for entrance into Stanford university.

Eighth avenue, between San Carlos and Mission streets, left in bad shape by the highway contractor, has been leveled, thanks to Supervisor Dr. Roberts.

Just like a weekly letter from you—The Pine Cone. Send it home. $1 a year until February 1.

Mrs. Alice V. Cotton has returned from the city, where she has been visiting her daughter.

That the Carmel public appreciates the efforts of the Manzanita Club to provide first-class moving-picture exhibitions was testified to by the large attendance last Saturday night.

Another week's labor will see the completion of the substantial addition to the Chappell cottage on Dolores street.

A. M. Robertson, the San Francisco publisher, has just issued a versification by George Sterling of "Everyman."

To Subscribers

The prices of paper, ink, and other materials entering into the producing of a newspaper continue to advance.

Beginning with No. 1, Vol. III, on February 1, 1917, the subscription price of the Pine Cone will be $1.50 a year.

It will continue to be the aim of the publisher of the Pine Cone to issue a journal worthy of the city it represents; as the city grows, the paper will grow.
