Working for the Coast Road and Abalone Legislation

Our Assemblyman, W. J. Martin, was a visitor here last Thursday morning. He came to consult his constituents and to gather data concerning the enactment of legislation protecting the abalone.

Martin is strong for the completion of the Coast Scenic Highway.

At a meeting of the Pacific Grove Chamber of Commerce last week legislator Martin made an interesting address concerning the benefits to be derived by the peninsula from this Carmel-by-the-Sea to San Luis Obispo highway. He declared there was no doubt but what the Legislature would make and appropriation for the survey and construction of the highway.

Martin paid a strong tribute to Supervisor Roberts for his zealous and effective labors in behalf of the road project.

While of opposing political parties, Martin and Rigdon are working together tooth and nail on the scenic highway proposition.

A Carmel citizens committee may go to Sacramento to meet the legislative committees having in hand highway and abalone matters.

NEWS NOTES

Yesterday was the first day of Lent. Today in practically every primary and grammar school in this country and in some other countries Washington's birthday will be remembered.

Contractor M. J. Murphy has about finished alterations on the Williams dwelling on the Eighty-acre Tract.

Dr. W. L. Teaby, who is about as well known in Carmel as in his home town, is being urged to run for Mayor of Monterey in April.

All the tenants have now vacated the Wilson building. John Morrison has found new quarters, Mrs. DeYoe has a building of her own, and E. M. Nix has moved his stock to Pacific Grove. The building will be used for municipal offices.

The success of the recent Dickens affair has brought forth the suggestion from a number of townspeople that this year's Forest Theatre main event be a great Dickens production.

A special meeting of St. Anne's Guild is to be held tomorrow afternoon at The Needles. This organization has raised nearly $100 in Carmel toward the five-million-dollar Episcopal Church pension fund.

The little white house now located on the north side of Ocean avenue, between San Carlos avenue and Dolores street, was the property of the Kogles before being acquired by Mrs. R. J. DeYoe. It will be used for a real estate office.

The showers last Friday afternoon did not in the least dampen the ardor of those ladies who attend regularly Mrs. Mabel Gray Young's recitals. The program was unusually attractive. Mrs. F. C. Pudan assisted Mrs. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Gray of Pebble Beach purchased at the San Francisco auto show a splendidly appointed National car. They are now in San Francisco, but will shortly return home in the new car.

Mrs. Sydney Yard read "The Stronger," a play by Guiseppe Giocosa, before a drama circle in Redwood City last week.

The Music History Club met as usual last Wednesday. The subject for study was "The Song Form," and the great song composers of the early nineteenth century were considered. Miss Eunice Gray sang Schubert's "Who is Silvia," Robert Franz's "Widmung," and "Die Lotus Blume" from Schumann, in illustration of the composers studied.

Mrs. Sydney Yard will read this afternoon at her studio a new play by Booth Tarkington, "Mister Antonio." The many friends of Mrs. Hoehfelt (Lilian Devendorf) will be pleased to know that she will assist Mrs. Yard with violin selections appropriate to the play.

Through the kindness of Mrs. E. R. Harrison, of San Francisco, "Musical America," a weekly journal, has been placed on the shelves of the Carmel Library. The music students will appreciate other gifts of this nature, as the quantity of music literature in the library is not large.

You who read this: If you have a friend in the California Legislature, write him, requesting his support for the completion of the Coast highway from Carmel-by-the-Sea to San Luis Obispo.

PAINT YOUR ROOFS NOW

Winter is here. Protect your Buildings and valuable contents against the coming storms. Where possible, your painting should be done before the rains begin.

A coat of paint applied now to the roofs—either prepared (sometimes called paper) shingles, galvanized iron or tin—of your house, barns, garage, or other buildings, will not only improve the general appearance of your place, but will add years to the life of your buildings.

PABCO PAINT

in three colors—Black, Red, and Green—is made expressly for roofs by THE PARAFFINE PAINT COMPANY, the largest manufacturers of preservative and waterproof paints in the West, and is the result of more than thirty years' experience in the manufacture of paints suitable for California climatic conditions.

See our window display of PABCO PAINTS, and let us show you how little it will cost to paint your roofs.

THE HANDY FARM PAINT

PABCO PAINT is a wonderful preservative for Water-troughs, Tanks, Silos, Irrigation Boxes, Wooden and Iron Flumes and Pipes, Steel or Wooden Fences, Building Foundations, and in fact, Metal or Wooden Surfaces of all kinds.

Origin of "Uncle Sam"

Uncle Sam is just now the most widely talked of and caricatured individual in the world. "Uncle Sam's navy" is spoken of much more frequently than the "United States" navy.

During the war with England in 1812 is when the United States was first called Uncle Sam. The story connected with the origin of the nickname has it that someone inquired what the letters "U. S.," painted on a number of casks and barrels, signified. A jocular reply was, "Uncle Sam," referring to Samuel Wilson, a merchant of Troy, N. Y., to whom the merchandise was consigned. Public journals took up the name immediately, and by 1817 its popularity was established.

The first recorded cartoon of Uncle Sam, and perhaps the earliest, was published in 1844 in the London Punch. It was entitled "Yankee Doo," and showed the high hat and long coat-tails. The familiar whiskers, striped trousers and starred vest were not there.

The first American cartoon was Bellevue's, published in the New York Lantern in 1852. Here Uncle Sam had no whiskers, but he wore striped trousers.

It is believed that Thomas Nast, in Harper's Weekly, was the first to present Uncle Sam in the costume with which we are now familiar.

WEEKLY GREETING
GEORGE WASHINGTON—
First in War; First in Peace; First

Do Your Duty

A dollar circulated in Carmel is worth two circulated elsewhere.

A loyal citizen is one who does his trading at home.

The merchant who is the greatest benefit to a town is the one who patronizes his fellow home merchant and instructs his help to "buy at home."

By helping your neighbor in business you are helping yourself.

Why purchase from an outside solicitor when he pays nothing towards the police and fire protection of your city.

When you increase the pay roll of a local establishment with your patronage you are increasing the prosperity of your town and at the same time helping your own business.

"Peace Without Victory"

WHAT ROOSEVELT THINKS OF IT

"Peace without victory is the natural ideal of the man who is too proud to fight. In the event of war it is the only kind of peace open to the nation whose governors and leaders are too proud to fight and too foolish to prepare. It is spurned by all men of lofty soul, by all men fit to call themselves fellow-citizens of Washington and Lincoln, or of the war-worn fighters who followed Grant and Lee.

"Mr. Wilson asks the world to accept a Copperhead peace of dishonor, a peace without victory for the right, a peace designed to let wrong triumph, a peace championed in neutral countries by the apostles of timidity and greed."

AS OTHERS SEE IT

Some will regard the President's program as pro-Entente, some as pro-German, says the Baltimore American, "but, in fact, it is pro-American, and this means it is pro-humanitarian."

"Upon the principles enunciated by the President must be based the only saving peace that can come to the world, and the only peace to the permanence of which

A GOOD BOOST

The February issue of the Pacific Golf and Motor Magazine, published in San Francisco contains a splendid write-up under the caption of "Through the Traveler's Windshield," of a week-end run to Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel-by-the-Sea and Point Lobos.

It is illustrated with several good cuts of interesting places hereabouts, including the attractive and historic places of Monterey, the Seventeen Mile Drive, Pebble Beach at sunset in all its glory, and makes a strong point of the "as smooth as a ribbon" macadam roads winding in easy grades around picturesque hills and through wonderful little canyons all the way from San Francisco, the starting point, throughout the whole trip, declaring it to be "one of the most delightful short trips in the entire world."

This is a good advertisement for our part of the country, and given in a popular monthly with as wide a circulation as is enjoyed by the Pacific Golf and Motor Magazine it will do us much good.

Would'nt Have Missed It For Anything

From the time the first merry-makers entered the hall until the musicians rendered the "Home Sweet Home" waltz, there was not an uninteresting interval at the annual masquerade ball of the Manzanita Club, last Saturday night.

There were all sorts of costumes—grotesque, cheap, novel, expensive—all adding to the color and gayety of the occasion. A touch of the patriotic was given the affair by the display of a portrait of General Washington, and masquers costumed as "Miss Columbia" and "Uncle Sam."

And such excellent music. Old folks who thought they had forgotten how to trip the light fantastic, and youngsters who had never danced before, couldn't help stepping to the music, so good was the time. Kelsey and his orchestra certainly "know how."

The only complaint heard since the affair took place is to the effect that when people have such a fine time, it is not pleasant to have to wait a whole year for a repetition.

The prize-winners were: Mrs. H. P. Larouette as an old-time Negro mammy, and Mr. R. W. Hicks as a loud, over dressed Coon.

Movies for the Schools

County Superintendent Schultzberg has gone into the show business. He has a moving picture machine, the power for the running of which he generates with his automobile engine.

Schultzberg believes strongly in the value of visual educational methods. What one actually sees is better retained in the memory than that which is read or talked of.

The plan is to give exhibitions at the school-houses throughout the county. Parents will be welcome. The superintendent has a large number of slides which show the advantages of rural school consolidation.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A feature of the Washington's birthday celebration at the Sun-et School will be a dramatization of "The First Flag." Smith Newberry will be George Washington; Teaby Nichols, John Adams; Waldo Hicks, Robert Morris; Irene Gould, Betty Ross; Evelyn Arne and Lucy Shinn, friends of Betty.

In response to a telegraphic summons from H. C. Hoover, chairman of the Belgian Relief Commission, Mrs. V. L. Kellogg departed from Palo Alto for New York last Thursday.

With an instrument nearly as large as himself, little Eugene Roehling is now the "Drummer Boy" of Sunset school.

The Carmel Missionary Society will consider the "North American Indian" at its monthly meeting, 3 p.m. next Wednesday, at the Presbyterian chapel. Friends and strangers cordially invited.

The Hill place near Pebble Beach has been put in readiness for the arrival of Louis J. Hill and party this week from St. Paul. During his anticipated three months' stay here, Mr. Hill will devote much time to painting.

R. J. McCabe was on hand at the masquerade ball Saturday night, with an eye to new stunts and costumes for coming Lodge affairs.

H. H. Stallard, of Oklohama, Socialist lecturer, is advertised to hold a public meeting at the Manzanita next Monday evening.

News From La Playa

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter had their Buick shipped to San Francisco from Oregon. They will motor to the Imperial Valley. This is their second visit to La Playa since February 8.

Six of our New York guests will arrive this week, coming up from Santa Barbara by motor. Six others are due on the 27th.

We find it difficult to reply correctly to inquiries concerning condition of our streets. We refer to prospective patrons desiring to come here in their own limousines, and who contemplate remaining a month or more. Six thousand dollars has been expended in making La Playa attractive for people of means, and we feel that a good approach should soon be provided.
