

Coast Road Money Is Now Available

Recently the $250,000 military highway appropriation, voted by the Legislature just before the end of the session, became available.

A considerable part of this money will be spent in surveying the Coast Road between Posts, in this county, and San Carpejo, in San Luis Obispo county.

It is believed that the federal government will make a substantial appropriation toward the cost of the construction work, by recommendation of the War Department.

Thus has occurred an important event toward the attainment of a project which is destined to accomplish more than any other agency to increase population and put to use idle land in a large stretch of territory now isolated.

Many Attend Foster Exhibit and Tea

Last Saturday afternoon it seemed like old times had returned—the period when the social events of Carmel were incomplete without the assistance and presence of Mrs. E. J. Foster.

At various places in the grounds surrounding the beautiful residence American and Red Cross flags were on display to show that something unusual was going on.

And it was unusual. During her over fifty years residence in California, Mrs. Foster has gathered a most unusual array of art objects, and historical things. Many of the latter, however, are family possessions, passed along from generation.

To thoroughly enjoy and appreciate the numerous articles on display, one must have more time than a single afternoon.

In entertaining the many who were present, Mrs. Foster was her old self again. But what was most agreeable to her, as the result of this fine exhibit, was the knowledge that she was able to substantially help the men at the front, through the Red Cross.

City Trustess Discuss Many Matters

The general good of the community was the keynote of the monthly meeting of the Board of Trustees on Tuesday night.

Street improvements, building regulations, official ground survey, traffic signs, fire protection. These, and several other matters, were discussed and action taken thereon.

With the exception of Trustee Beardsley, who is in the southern part of the state, chairman Fraser called a full board to order. There were a number of citizens present.

Ordinances Numbers 10, 15, and 16 were passed and ordered published in the Pine Cone.

The July report of the City Marshal was presented and placed on file.

The Fire Commissioner was authorized to purchase necessary fire-fighting apparatus.

Bills aggregating $191.63 were approved.

The trustees sit as an equalization board next Monday, at 10 a.m., in the City Hall.

For summer visitors, The Pine Cone three months for 40 cents.

BE A BOOSTER !

In this day of strife and sadness,
I've a song of cheer and gladness;
What boots it if the meter's bad,
If it but serves to make you glad?
BE A BOOSTER—that's my message
You may never pack a gun;
From the damp and dismal trenches
You may never wing a Hun.
Yet your bit is just as helpful,
Even though you wear no saber,
If you strive to keep the sunshine
In the heart of friend and neighbor.
Boost your country, boost your friend,
Boost the lodge that you attend;
Boost the town in which you're dwelling,
Boost the goods that you are selling,
Boost the people round about you,
Maybe they might do without you;
But success will quicker find them
If they know that you're behind them;
Boost for every forward movement,
Boost for every new improvement;
Boost the stranger and the neighbor,
Boost the man for whom you labor.
Cease to be a chronic knocker,
Cease to be a progress blocker;
If you'd have your home town better
Boost it to the final letter.

Soldiers Entertained

Chaperoned by Argyle Campbell, a party of newly made Army officers from the San Francisco Presidio, came down Saturday evening, registering at La Playa. After a wash-up and dinner, the men were taken to the Boko residence, where they danced until the small hours.

About noon on Sunday a number of townspeople, who had been invited to meet the men, gathered at Cook's Cove for a jolly picnic.

After a swim in the briny, the visitors departed for San Francisco on the 5 o'clock stage.

COMING EVENTS

Owing to the ever changing personnel of our summer visitors, the Arts and Crafts Club will open its clubrooms next Sunday afternoon for another of those delightful "get-acquainted" affairs. Members, their friends, and visitors are invited.

The annual meeting of the Forest Theatre Society takes place next Thursday evening, at Arts and Crafts Hall. All members are urged to attend.

The Star Theatre Club, of the Eighty-acre Tract, which gave such a delightful entertainment last year, will, on August 24, present "Peter Pan Smith," at the Forest Theatre.

The soldierette encampment at Asilomar will be opened on Tuesday, August 28. A novel and interesting flag-raising ceremony will take place. All applications should be sent to Mrs. F. H. Colburn, 972 Bush street, San Francisco.

Where the wild-flowers and the trees and the birds are, at the Forest Theatre, Mrs. Conway Evans of Florence, Italy, will give a lecture talk tomorrow afternoon, her subject being "A Florentine Love Cycle." The proceeds will be shared with the Red Cross.

On Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 6, there is to be given, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Watts, a garden party and tea, in aid of All Saints Church. Admission 25c. (tea included).

The Monterey Union High School opens Monday, August 20. About twenty pupils from Carmel will attend.

Dance tomorrow night at Arts and Crafts Hall. The local orchestra has some new music, and All Saints rectory needs the money.

The local Board of Equalization meets at the City Hall next Monday morning. If you feel that you have been unfairly treated, tell the board about it.

Frederick Preston Search will give his annual Carmel recital on Sunday afternoon, August 19, in Manzanita Hall. He will be assisted by eminent artists. The entire net proceeds are for the Red Cross.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—J. Ogden Armour, President of Armour & Co., returned here recently from attending war supply conferences in the East. He was at the daily meeting of packers at the yards, when he was asked what he thought of the war situation.

"I'll tell you what I think," he replied. "The government of the United States can have Armour & Co., can have me, all my employees, everything I've got. We may not all realize it, but as a nation and as free men we have staked all, and shall win or lose all."

 mel: A business man's wife suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for years. Although she dieted she was so bloated her clothes would not fit.
 ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka relieved her INSTANTLY. Because Adler-i-ka empties BOTH large and

WEEKLY GREETING

You cannot delegate to another the kind word, the helpful smile, which you alone must administer. At the polls of God, as at the voting places of the state, proxies are not allowed.— Jenkin Lloyd Jones.

A Loyal Town

Not all the speeches, editorials, and magazine articles, rolled into one,
 have the power to arouse patriotic enthusiasm that has the visual representation of the triumph of American arms, as shown in moving pictures.

The above observation is based upon the wildly patriotic demonstration which greeted the exhibition of Thomas Dixon's "Fall of a Nation" at our own theatre. The secret service men who were among those present, will be able to report Carmel a loyal community. Not much need to say to anyone here "If you don't believe in the war, keep your mouth shut."

EDITORIAL BRIEFS

It is a fact worthy of record that two of the most noted authorities on the folksong bear the same surname—Daniel Gregory Mason and James Redfern Mason. It is a coincidence, too, that recently both these men were in Carmel at the same time.

This office has received some amusingly addressed letters, among them we may mention
 "Pine Nut," "Pine Knot,"
 "Kine Pone" and "The Cone."
 A few days ago a letter came addressed to "Porcu-Pine."

Though somewhat novel, it seemed quite appropriate that the splendid music rendered at the recent Mission benefit concert should have received the tribute of silence from the audience, instead of the usual jarring applause.

The Pine Cone has a well equipped job printing plant.
 Prices are fair.

For Lovers of Music

Song and piano. Such is the second program offered by the Carmel Summer School of Music.
 Mrs. Fanny Bailey Scott is to be the vocal artist tomorrow evening, while Dean Allen of the Pacific Conservatory of Music at San Jose, will appear at the piano.

Mrs. Scott is to sing arias from Haydn's "Creation." She is eminently an oratorio singer, having sung in many of the bay region productions. She will also render songs from Brahms and other great composers.

Warren D. Allen will play selections from Chopin, Brahms, and Schuman. Notable among these will be the Chopin Scherzo in C Sharp Minor, and an intermezzo of Brahms, a bit of musical lace-work and witchery rarely to be matched.

Tickets are on sale for these and coming events at the office of Mrs.
 R. J. DeYoe and the Carmel Development Co. A ticket purchased now is good for any concert—and there are five coming.

La Playa News Notes

DeWitt Parshall, noted artist, of New York, is here for a month or more. His son, Douglass, is following in the footsteps of his father, and with him is taking in the many interesting points hereabouts.

Mrs. Kate P. Herrick of Sacramento, whose beautiful work on china is known all over the West, is here for a month.

John M. McGee left for Oakland last Saturday to take his physical examination. He desires to enter the Army in any capacity, but prefers special duty in chemistry work, if such a post is open.

Mrs. A. D. Signor, now a member of the California State Hotel Association, made a hurried trip to San Francisco last week, going up with Miss Lyons, who expects to remain a month in Oakland closing her affairs.

Dr. William N. Tower unexpectedly left for Tucson, but will return some time in October. Dr. Tower has offered his services to the government.

Frank Ordway, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kibbler and Mrs. Mary Young, upon learning that he was not drafted, offered his services to the Medical Corps, and being accepted, will leave for France in a few weeks. Mr. Ordway is just past 21.

Recent arrivals:

Mrs. Walter Cook and maid, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Parshall, Douglass Parshall, Carol Parshall, Marion M. Dana, New York; Walter Rowson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goodsill, Lillian I. Ostrander, San Francisco; Mrs. R. T. McKisick, Evelyn J. McKisick, Sacramento; Elizabeth L. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, Los Angeles; Rev. J. W. Velodomet, Hayward; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eliel, Phillips Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Higgins, Marie and Ethel Higgins, Berkeley; Edith G. Rowland, Mrs. Mary McK. Robinson, Douglass B. Robinson, Pasadena; Herbert Schneider, San Jose; Capt. and Mrs. C. J. Bruguere, Miss Marie Bruguere, Oakland; Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Lockett, Reno; Aileen McIntosh, Gordon McIntosh, Miss M. Ingram, Woodside.

Army men—Howatd P. Douglass, G. H. Ramsdell, P. C. Bagley, Presidio, San Francisco; Theo Essig, H. P. Hoffman, Spokane; H. D. Hughes, Seattle; C. W. Koffman, Oregon City.

Appreciation

To the general public, which so generously patronized the recent Red Cross moving picture exhibition, and to Mrs. F. Pudan, Mr. Delos Curtis, Mr. W. Hicks, Mr. Benj. Turner, Mr. W. Gröske, the Moving Picture Committee of the Manzanita Club, and others, who gave their services, both contributing to make the affair the success it was, we thank.

Red Cross News

The posters recently exhibited here are to be shown in San Francisco, after which they will be sent to Washington, to be used for Red Cross Magazine covers. Mr. John L. Clymer, through the Pine Cone, desires to express his thanks to the artists and promoters of the competition here.

Carmel is in line for the silver cup, given annually to any city or town whose entire population are members of the Red Cross. If there are any here not members, they should join now. We want that silver cup.

The receipts of last Thursday night's benefit movie show were materially added to by the generosity of the Carmel Candy Store. The entire receipts from candy sold were donated to the chapter.

Ladies having Red Cross work out (finished) are urged to bring same to headquarters at once.

Writing to Mrs. J. G. Powers, John L. Clymer, Director of the Pacific Division, says:

"We are very glad to have you send us copies of the Carmel Pine Cone, so that we can keep in touch with your work. You certainly have one of the most unique and energetic chapters in this division, and it is a source of great pleasure to us to know of the development of your work."

PINEAPPLE DELIGHT.

One cupful of chopped pineapple, one tablespoonful of gelatine, two tablespoonfuls of rice, three-quarters cupful of sugar, one cupful of whipping cream, two cupfuls of boiling water or of pineapple juice, a pinch of salt, a few preserved cherries. Boil the rice until very soft; then drain it. Dissolve the gelatine in the boiling water; then add the sugar and rice. Cool slightly and add the salt, the pineapple and the whipped cream. Cool and serve in dainty glasses with a cherry on the top of each.

Pine Needles

Mrs. Mabel Gray Young and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Gray, are visiting at Palo Alto this week.

Joe Von Ende has forwarded the necessary papers preparatory to his becoming a member of the U. S. Ambulance Corps.

Mrs. L. S. Ulman and children are here from San Francisco. They will occupy White Cedars for about a month.

Mrs. G. F. Buck and son of Stockton, where Judge Buck is on the Superior Bench, arrived here last week for a brief visit.

Mrs. C. F. Hoffman of Oakland, who visits here often, came down last week with her niece, Miss Browne.

Clarence Hadley rode into town last Wednesday evening, having come by bicycle all the way from Modesto, a distance of 180 miles, in fourteen hours. He is visiting Mrs. George Collis, his aunt.

Marnee Williams, Grace Wickham, and Phyllis Overstreet were week-end guests at the Hilliard camp down the Coast.

Mrs. Frank Gibbs and little daughter returned to their Piedmont home last week, after a three months' visit with the Devendorfs.

BUTTERSCOTCH PIE.

One cupful brown sugar, one heaping tablespoonful butter, and one tablespoonful of flour. Mix like cake, then add yolks of two eggs, one tablespoonful vanilla, one cupful sour cream. Line your pie tin with rich pie crust, fill with above, and bake in a moderate oven. When done, cover with a meringue made of the whites of two eggs and two tablespoonfuls powdered sugar, and return to the oven to brown.
