Musician Joins U. S. Naval Reserve

Frederick Preston Search, enlisted in the U. S. Naval Reserve, has been attached to Mare Island as conductor of the Naval Reserve Orchestra. His immediate appointment is as "First Musician," which is second only to the highest rank in the naval musical service, to which highest title he will be advanced as soon as there is vacancy in that already full quota. His entire work will be in the direction of the orchestra.

Mr. Search played a concert last Thursday evening at San Jose, presenting, by request, among other numbers, his "Sonata Carmela." He is under engagement, beginning on February 1, for seven weeks of concerts every Thursday and Sunday nights, at Del Monte, but this will probably be interrupted by his call to Mare Island for his new duties in about a month.

Pine Needles

In Col. W. R. McIntosh the Monterey Chamber of Commerce has secured as its secretary a "live wire." Things are happening already. How about the saloons in your town, Colonel?

The Rendtorff bungalow has been taken for a year by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Spencer.

There are more winter sojourners in Carmel than ever before. The time is not far distant when our little town will be as popular a winter resort as a summer one.

Mrs. Florence G. Hall came down from Palo Alto for the week-end.

Court order—Estate of Mrs. Edith E. Cobbe—Permission granted executor to file inventory of after-discovered property.

The Chappells departed on Sunday morning, after a stay here of a month.

Editor A. B. Smith of the Pacific Grove Review was a business visitor in this city last week.

Peter N. Hanna; he used to visit here often. Well, "Pete" has joined the aviation corps. If he flies as well as he plays poker, he'll have to go some.

Lent begins next Wednesday, and the day following is St. Valentine's day.

"His Majesty Bunker Bean," a dramatization of Harry Leon Wilson's story, is now on the boards in a San Francisco play house.

Mrs. Rickey and daughter will leave shortly for Ecuador, where Mrs. Rickey has a son.

This week's moving picture show—"Betty to the Rescue"—will be given this evening, owing to the masque dance for the Red Cross on Saturday.

Citizens who have not registered since January 1, this year, cannot vote at the city election here.

Dr. and Mrs. V. O. Whitcome have moved to the Highlands. They have rented the Hall place pending the building of their own home.

Two of our literary folks are expected home shortly—Mrs. Grace MacGowan Cooke from Hollywood, and Michael Williams from New York.

Ludovic Bremner, at Hampton Roads, has qualified to take the radio operator examination, and hopes to be sent to Harvard University for the finishing course.

Artist Godfrey Fletcher is again a resident Carmelite, having moved over from Monterey last week to occupy the Yard studio.

Ralph Bowen and family are now occupying the Williams cottage down near the beach.

The publisher of the Pine Cone is being complimented on the fine manner in which the delinquent tax list was issued.

Mrs. Sydney Yard is away on a week's vacation. During her absence Miss Margaret Clark is acting as Librarian.

Dr. Knight and family of Boston, who were here last year, have taken the Karmany house near Pebble Beach, for six months, beginning April 1.

TWO BITS

A Day Clubs

Out in Phoenix, Arizona, a movement has been inaugurated for the formation of Two Bits a Day clubs, the members of which are to buy a quarter's worth of Thrift Stamps every day. Three men each took a hundred Thrift cards, pasted one stamp on each card, and sold the entire lot before two block had been covered.

"Two bits" is the old term, dating back to the early days of the country, for a quarter of a dollar, and is still used in the South and West. Every patriotic American now wants to "do his bit." The members of these clubs are carrying out the idea finely in doing their "two bits" every day. It is hoped that "Two Bits a Day" clubs will be formed all over the country in the great war savings campaign.

Afternoon Reception

As a result of last Friday's well attended reception in her honor, Mrs. Walter Moffat, mother of the rector of All Saints, is already well acquainted in Carmel, and a number of home affairs are being given for her this week.

The cozy little rectory was crowded all afternoon by those who had come to pay their respects to the visiting lady. Several of the parish ladies assisted in the introductions and the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Moffat is in love with Carmel, and will remain just as long as she can.

WEDDINGS ON SHORT NOTICE

How Missionaries in the Early Days Obtained Their Wives.

There is a touch of comedy about the businesslike way in which several of the early missionaries went to work to obtain wives before they left the shores of New England, writes the Rev. Francis E. Clark in Youth's Companion. The call to go to Hawaii was somewhat sudden and imperative. As a rule, only one vessel that would take passengers sailed in the course of a year for Honolulu, and of course it went by the way of Cape Horn. Often not more than a few days or weeks elapsed between the decision of the young theologian to accept the commission of the American board and the sailing of the packet ship. But the rule of the board was that the applicants must be married before they sailed for the field. Ay, there was the rub, for in many cases they had not decided whom to ask to be their brides.

But the time and tide would not wait for a long courtship, and so brothers or cousins or roommates were asked to intercede with eligible maidens, whom perhaps the prospective bridegrooms had never seen. It is even said that the young theologians haunted "female seminaries," and that the good, pretty and pious girls were lined up for their inspection.

Although this may be an exaggeration, it is certain that several of the brides who in the early days went with their missionary husbands to Hawaii were wooed by proxy, at least during the preliminary stages of the wooing. It should be added that, so far as is known, all those marriages turned out most happily, both for the young couples and for the work in which they were engaged. Their high purpose, their common sacrifice and their great mission in life drew them close together.

DELICIOUS CORN MUFFINS.

Here's an old fashioned recipe for corn muffins that has recently been revived and used with unusual success in several of the larger New York hotels: To make three and a half dozen muffins take one quart milk, six ounces butter substitute, twelve ounces of light syrup or honey, four eggs, pinch of salt, two ounces baking powder, one and a half pounds cornmeal and one and a half pounds rye flour. The butter and syrup should be thoroughly mixed; then add the eggs gradually. Pour in the milk and add the rye flour mixed with cornmeal and baking powder.

This Is Our Winter of Test

SERVING food is a local problem for each community. Prices and definite rules for every one cannot be formulated. It is a duty for each one to eat only so much as is necessary to maintain the human body healthy and strong. This winter of 1918 is the period when is to be tested here in America whether our people are capable of voluntary individual sacrifice to save the world. That is the purpose of the organization of the United States Food Administration—by voluntary effort to provide the food that the world needs.

WEEKLY GREETING

Fragility is good, if liberality be joined with it. The first is leaving off superfluous expenses; the last bestowing them to the benefit of others that need—The first without the last begins covetousness; the last without the first begins prodigality; both together make an excellent temper.—William Penn.

Good morning! Have you bought a War Thrift Stamp?

Volume IV, No. 1

Did you notice it on the first page?

The weekly Pine Cone has completed its third year, and today begins its fourth.

Looking backward, we observe that progress has been made. Carmel-by-the-Sea has grown. Our list of subscribers has grown and expanded; the job printing patronage has been generous; we desire additional local and other advertising. A stranger picking up the Pine Cone in Los Angeles wouldn't know that there was a hotel in Carmel.

Looking forward, we note signs of further artistic and material increase in this community, and we shall keep pace with it.

We thank you.

The Board of Trustees

Three chairs will be vacated in the council chamber at the Carmel City Hall during the first week in April. Who will be selected to occupy these seats is a matter worthy of serious thought.

"Better be safe than sorry" is a safe policy just now. The city is passing through a critical period in its development. With a number of improvements projected, much depends upon the policy of our Board of Trustees.

Making a city habitable for resident and visitor, preserving its beauty, adjusting local ordinances to State laws, all these matters demand experience and time. Let us re-elect Trustees who possess both of these requirements.

Lent Is

A Blessing

But blessings come only to those who seek them.

An Invitation

To give you an insight into the secret of nobler living. Accept the invitation. Make no vain excuses.

An Opportunity

Grasp it. Opportunity once neglected never returns.

A Privilege

A Necessity

To every honest person who would take account of his life and learn his actual spiritual condition and see himself as God sees him.

A Help to Others

By coming to the House of God and offering your prayers for those engaged in War who need your spiritual help as well as material.

A Time of Spiritual Refreshment

At the hands of the Lord. If we so desire, so shall it be, a time of spiritual feasting, the time when we draw nigh unto God, that He may draw near unto us; a time when we open the door of our heart and invite the Christ as a welcome Guest.

A Shrub and a Tree.

Southern California boasts one native species of acacia, the cat's claw (a greggii), which is but a shrub in that state, but becomes a tree in Arizona. It bears small pale yellow flowers and an abundance of very sharp thorns.—Argonaut.

Early Paper.

When paper was first made in England, in 1588, it was only of a brown color, and it was not until about 1690 that white paper was produced, and even then it was of inferior quality.

How About Your Income Tax?

Those who think the law does not apply to them should investigate. The authorities of the federal government are making vigorous efforts to impress upon all who come within the provisions of the act the necessity of making returns by the end of this month.

The tax applies to many who do not believe they come under its specifications. Those earning $84.33 a month, or $1000 a year (during 1917), who are not married, and those who are married and earn $166.66 a month, or $2000 a year or over, are liable under the act.

A statement need not be made if the income does not reach these figures.

For other information, address Justus S. Wardell, Internal Revenue Collector, San Francisco.

FINDS BOTTLE AFLOAT

One Thrown Into Kentucky River Picked Up Off Rhode Island.

On May 8, 1900, Benjamin Petwick of Cincinnati, while fishing in Licking river, Kentucky, threw overboard a bottle containing a note with his name and address, reading:

"Let me know when and where it was found."

Sergt. James H. Tolson of the quartermaster's department, stationed at Fort Grebel, R. I., while fishing off the fort, found the bottle recently. He has communicated the incident to Mr. Petwick.

INDIANS NOW FOX TROT

Modern Steps Are Replacing Ancient Tribal Dances.

The seductive fox trot and one-step have ruined forever the beautiful white deerskin dance of the Klamath Indians. The Indians have just staged one of their rare spectacles and several of the braves who had devoted themselves to syncopated music and dancing failed to come back, falling naturally into the modern steps, while some of the most intricate steps of the traditional tribal dance were supposed to hold the boards.

Reed of San Jose at Monterey Tonight

The city manager of San Jose, Thomas H. Reed, will tonight, under the auspices of the Monterey Commerce Chamber, make an address on Municipal Economy and Efficiency.

By his excellent work in San Jose during the past eighteen months, Mr. Reed has acquired a reputation second to none in his particular line.

Working as he is to show up and correct municipal shortcomings and extravagances, it may be said of him that he is proud of the enemies he has made.

Mr. Reed is an able public speaker, and Carmel folks who take the trip "over the hill" to the Presbyterian Church will be well repaid for their journey.

The birthday party in aid of All Saints church takes place next Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. D. W. W. Johnson. Everyone is invited to attend this novel social affair.

Mrs. Signor has returned from Los Angeles, where she went to see her nephew, who is seriously ill, as well as to rid herself of a severe cold. While south, she visited all the Red Cross salvage depots to obtain pointers; also the Huntington and Maryland in Pasadena, the large hotels, restaurants and cafeterias in Los Angeles, in the interests of the food saving proposition.

Tourists are not pouring into the south, as expected and prepared for, although the papers still claim people are sleeping in their autos, lacking accommodations. Well—may be so!

While in Pasadena, our party got into the cyclone, and while other machines lost their tops and awnings, signs and roofs took flight, we escaped with a few scratches and lamps shattered. The morning papers reported "a freakish wind for a few moments only." It is well to be truthful.

Trustees Declare Street Work a Necessity

The regular monthly meeting of the city trustees was held on Tuesday evening.

It was an epoch-making meeting in that by unanimous vote the members of the board placed themselves on record as in favor of proceeding with plans to do proposed street work, and a resolution to that effect was adopted.

By reason of the fact that Carmel-by-the-Sea depends on a great measure upon the ability and visitors generally to prosper, it was agreed that good streets were a vital necessity.

The money expended for such improvement, extending over a period of years, would in no event be devoted to waste. With good streets the people will be more prosperous and better able to support the war—should it be long drawn out.

A representative of Paradise Park property owners made request that the map of that section be altered so as to be designated by block instead of by lot. The request will probably be granted.

A preliminary ordinance bearing upon the municipal election on April 8, was given first reading.

A number of bills were approved.

School Closed

The local public school will remain closed during the week beginning Monday, February 11.
