W. C. Howe of the California State Highway Commission states that he hopes in a short time to have a number of field parties at work on the survey of the proposed Carmel-San Simeon Coast Highway.

The Commission has appropriated the funds to prosecute the work, and as soon as the rainy season is over work will begin. Headquarters will be established here for the work at this end.

They Would Be Trustee

Wm. T. Kibbler and Court. J. Arne have filed with the County Clerk their petitions of nomination for the office of City Trustee of this city.

Both candidates are pioneer residents of the community. Mr. Kibbler was a candidate at the last election, finishing seventh in a field of eleven.

Frank H. Powers and family spent the week-end at "The Dunes."

Eugene Gillett came down from Stanford for a few days last week.

Daniel Snively, who settled in Carmel Valley over fifty years ago, passed away on February 20, in Monterey, at the age of 77. His wife and two step-sons, Stanley and Wallace Ollason, survive him.

Burr Eastman of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson, whose home is in Piedmont, spent the week end here with his family. Mrs. Lois S. Anderson was with them.

The family of Miss Jansen, county school nurse may take a cottage here during March, April and May.

There is talk of the Carmel Valley farmers forming a good roads club. Says a resident: "The late rains have rendered the Roberts road unfit for heavy traffic, so that we will have to get together and do something."

Louis Narvaez has changed his place of employment, being now in charge of the Rothschild garden at Pebble Beach.

Bishop William F. Nichols is scheduled to make his annual visitation and sermon at All Saints the latter part of July.

The property sold last Monday morning for delinquent city taxes, is located for the most part in that section of the municipality known as Carmel City, northeast of the present town.

Mrs. Calvin Hogle has returned from Los Angeles, and will probably spend the entire spring and summer in Carmel.

Mrs. Arthur S. Learoyd of Short Hills, N. J., was a visitor in Carmel last week. Her husband, an official of the Lackawanna Railroad, has been in Washington this winter, rendering service to the Fuel Administration.

On Sunday evening, March 10, Rev. S. C. Thomas will speak on Winston Churchill's recent book, "The Dwelling Place of Light," which touches upon the labor question.

At Pacific Grove, next Wednesday morning, the civil service examination for Postmaster at Carmel will be held. Four will take the ex.

Rev. E. R. Moloney, well known here, past the enlistment age to join the U. S. army, has entered the Canadian service.

Carmel Valley is to have a Red Cross organization of its own. A number of the ladies of that section met at the home of Mrs. W. E. Martin last week to form a chapter. All the ladies hold membership in neighboring chapters, but they feel that a branch nearer their homes will be conducive to better and more work. Wednesday is meeting day.

The "bee farmers" of the county meet next Saturday afternoon at the rooms of the Monterey Chamber of Commerce.

The Fox family have taken the Gray "Barnacle" for a year. Miss Adaline Gray was down from Los Altos to close the deal.

Louis J. Hill and family and establishment have arrived at their Pebble Beach place from St. Paul.

The sister of Louis J. Hill, the railroad man, will shortly rent a Carmel cottage. Her home is in Seattle.

Godfrey Fletcher has been away for a week in San Francisco and vicinity.

The Shima family, now in Pasadena, will arrive here in June, to remain three months. They will occupy the Ryder house.

March 9 is the last day upon which citizens may register for the Carmel-by-the-Sea city election, which takes place on Tuesday, April 9.

Mrs. Catherine Ede of Palo Alto is here for a few days, visiting her son and family.

The March "Literary Afternoon," under the auspices of the Arts and Crafts Club, for the benefit of the Red Cross, will take place next Thursday. Mrs. Sydney Yard has in preparation a fine patriotic programme.

CLUB NOTES

By MISS I. A. JOHNSON

The Boys' Club was delightfully entertained on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. W. Johnson, where they heard a number of splendid records, among the most interesting of which were the new war songs, the music of the bands, and the bugle calls of both army and navy.

The boys joined in several of the familiar airs with much enthusiasm, and the serving of refreshments brought the affair to a close.

Next Monday will be devoted to chess and checkers.

RECOMMENDS HOME RULE

As a result of its survey of Springfield, Illinois, the Russell Sage Foundation, comes out strongly for home rule in taxation and annual appraisal of land values for taxation.

A new law requiring that land be assessed all over the state of Illinois at from 90 to 100 per cent of actual value is recommended.

Regarding the listing of personal property for taxation, the report says:

The assessment of personal property in Springfield, as in many other places, has not been just or successful. It favors the perjurer at the expense of the conscientious, tends to make false swearing an accepted custom, and comes down heaviest on small investors with a narrow range of opportunities for placing their funds.

Experience throughout this country indicates the impossibility of taxing personal property, especially entangible personality, at the same rates as those applied to real estate. The alternative suggested is the laying of a more moderate tax upon personal property, say about one-fourth or one-fifth of the rate applied to realty.—Ground Hog.

Why Colors Are Associated With Various Characteristics.

The association of colors with mental and moral characteristics is a matter of imagination, although the symbolism is psychologically sound and is founded on easily traced analogies. Black is associated with crime because black represents darkness, which widely serves as a cover for crime and is also representative of ignorance, which is the real cause of crime. White stands for purity because it represents light, or enlightenment, and also, perhaps, because it represents cleanness and freedom from blemish. And it is easy to see why red should represent courage, because it is the color of blood and may be taken to signify vitality. Also a courageous man is supposed to be willing to shed his blood, if necessary, in the defense of right and justice.

Garbage Collection Charges

Section 10, of City Ordinance No. 14, reads:

"A charge shall be collected from the owner, lessee, tenant, or occupant of all occupied premises within the corporate limits of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea for services rendered in the removal of garbage and waste. The charges for such collections shall be as follows:

For the removal of the contents of a single garbage, ash or waste receptacle, 15c.

For one removal per week, garbage and waste, 50c. per month.

For two removals per week, garbage and waste, $1 per month.

For three removals per week, garbage and waste, $1.50 per month.

For six removals per week, garbage and waste, $3 per month."

WEEKLY GREETING

If you want knowledge, you must toil for it; and if pleasure, you must toil for it. Toil is the law. Pleasure comes through toil, and not by self-indulgence and indelence. —Ruskin.

Stick To It

The man who has heard and heeded the call of the nation for a greater food supply, and, accordingly, has undertaken to cultivate his back yard or a neighboring vacant lot, must see the task through. He must dedicate himself to that purpose. He must remember that he means to do his bit for the service of the nation by adding to the nation's supplies. It is easy to begin. Spring turns us all instinctively toward the cultivation of the soil. But it is not so easy to finish. There will come days when tending the garden will not be alluring. Amusement will call—automobile, golf, tennis and other sports and pastimes will tempt. Gardening under those circumstances will not seem as pleasant or as interesting as it seems now. This every one should understand and realize. Back of every individual garden enterprise must be the sense of duty. An abandoned garden under present circumstances, whether it is in the gardener's own back yard, or on a vacant lot, is prima facie evidence of slacking. The gardener this year is to all intents and purposes a soldier. He has silently pledged himself to do his bit in the manner elected. He can not afford to be known as a slacker; he must see it through.

Mix these well together and add stiffly beaten white of egg. Line a plate with a thin pastr, pour the orange filling in, and bake. TWO BITS A Day Clubs

Out in Phoenix, Arizona, a movement has been inaugurated for the formation of Two Bits a Day clubs, the members of which are to buy a quarter's worth of Thrift Stamps every day. Three men each took a hundred Thrift cards, pasted one stamp on each card, and sold the entire lot before two block had been covered.

"Two bits" is the old term, dating back to the early days of the country, for a quarter of a dollar, and is still used in the South and West. Every patriotic American now wants to "do his bit." The members of these clubs are carrying out the idea finely in doing their "two bits" every day. It is hoped that "Two Bits a Day" clubs will be formed all over the country in the great war savings campaign.

The Festive Abalone

The following lines, by a Cincinnati lady who spent several weeks in Carmel, were written on the receipt of a Christmas gift of an abalone shuttle, sent from here:

Of course I have shuttles, some silver, some bony,
But never a one of that dear abalone,
And never a one that would cause me to boast
Of our glorious days on Pacific's old coast,
Of the picnics we had on that wild rocky shore,
Of the walks and the bonfires and drift-wood galore.

My "tummy" remembers it always felt tony
When our hostess would serve us sublime abalone.
I hope to make tatting and stop knitting socks
When this cruel war ends and I sit on the rocks
Of Carmel-by-the-Sea, the spot that I love—
I would rather go there than go up above.

An Amusing Show and a Large Attendance

Any Carmel event advertised as for the benefit of the Red Cross always attracts a large crowd. Last Friday evening's affair at Arts and Crafts Hall was no exception.

The program was well arranged and executed. First to be given were musical and vocal numbers by new residents here and by old favorites.

These were followed by the exhibition of figures, who were put through their paces by W. P. Silva, aided by a top hat and a brace and bit. Such well-known characters as Billy Sunday, Joan of Arc, Emaline Pankhurst, "Demit" Mr. Mateline, A Carmel Artist, Harry Lauder, and a mounted City Policeman, were "wound up" and did their stunts.

Dancing ended the evening's entertainment.

La Playa News Notes

The new golf links at Pebble Beach will be formally dedicated on Sunday, March 31.

It is rumored that the Pacific Grove Hotel is to be replaced by a business block.

The government recommends the use of barley flour, also that made from potatoes. We have been endeavoring for a month to get a line on both. A 10-pound trial sack was to be sent free to hotels. Ours must have been lost in transit.

The Red Cross has announced that it has no use for cancelled stamps.

Notwithstanding the non-arrival of many guests who had made reservations, we welcome the rains, realizing the good they accomplished.

We sincerely hope that trees in middle of narrow streets will be removed soon. They are a menace on dark nights.

Only vouchsafe three things I crave;
