All Americans Can Serve

Every man, woman and child in this country, who wants to serve the country, can serve it and serve it in a very simple and effective way, says Secretary McAdoo.

That service is to lend your money to the government. Every 25 cents loaned to the government is a help at this time and practically every man, woman and child, by making some trifling sacrifice, some denial of a pleasure, or giving up some indulgence, can render the government that support.

Eminent Jurist Dead

By the death of Judge Ralph C. Harrison in San Francisco last week California loses one of her most eminent citizens.

As a citizen, as a lawyer, and as a judge, he held the esteem of the people of this State for many years. Only a few months ago Judge and Mrs. Harrison made one of their occasional trips to Carmel, and friends here will sadly miss the old gentleman. Besides Mrs. Harrison, the deceased is survived by two sons.

E. S. Rigdon, State Senator for this district, whose home is at Cambria, was a week-end visitor here. Being a hold-over, he is not a candidate this year. He makes it his business, however, to travel over his district frequently to ascertain its needs.

Mrs. Argyle Campbell and her children are here from San Jose, occupying the Forsyth cottage. Lieutenant Campbell makes week-end trips from San Francisco.

The jewelery stolen from one of the hotel cottages about a month ago has been recovered through the efforts of Marshal Englund, and the culprit is behind the bars at Santa Cruz.

Mrs. Fred M. Hunter and son of Oakland are with the Avers in the one of the large Eighty Acre cottages. Mr. Hunter is Superintendent of the Oakland schools. Week end guests were Dr. and Mrs. Howard B. Kirtland of San Luis Obispo.

Garnet Holme spent the week-end here. He came down to confer about putting on a play here, and may return shortly to begin assembling a cast and starting rehearsals.

Mrs. M. L. Hamlin, Mrs. H. M. Ellis and Miss Ethel Minor, together with Miss Edna Stout of Boston, have returned from the Big Basin, where they spent a short, but pleasant, time amidst the wonderful trees of the State Redwood Park. The going journey took them by way of San Jose and Saratoga, and the return was made by the Santa Cruz Mountain route and the Big Trees. This is one of the many tours which C. W. Bowen has made popular.

A large congregation greeted Bishop William F. Nichols at All Saints Church last Sunday morning. A number of other well-known clergymen were in attendance and also many summer visitors.

Miss Janet Prentiss is the guest of Mrs. Bertha Newberry at Carmel Highlands.

The local public school opens a week from next Monday. Prospects are that there will be an enrollment of about eighty.

Monday evening the Carmel Sanitary Board meets as a board of equalization at the City Hall.

A week-end party in honor of Miss Theodora Wills, who is soon to become the bride of Charles Purington, was tendered by Mrs. H. S. Mulligan and Mrs. E. W. Lackay of Auburn, who are spending the summer here. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Charles Seanan, Mrs. O. J. Lowell, Misses Sally Mulligan, Betty and Eleanor Lowell.

The Big Sur and the Palo Colorado are growing in favor, and the big trees are taking their place in the hearts of the people that big trees should. Almost daily tips have been made to these wonder spots from the Highway Station.

Leo Narvaez left on Tuesday for Salinas at the call of the exemption board. He will be assigned for duty either to Camp Lewis or Camp Fremont. Another Carmel boy to help make the world safe for democracy!

Mrs. H. W. Morse and children of Los Angeles are again spending the summer here. They certainly love Carmel, as this is their fifth season here, and Mrs. Morse's many local friends would like to have her build a Carmel summer home.

Mrs. I. M. Linforth and children and Mrs. R. R. Good and child of Berkeley are here now and will remain through August. Professor Linforth will be here shortly.

Splendid Concert Soon

The Arts and Crafts Club needs a piano in order that Carmel may have more music. A splendid Weber grand is available at a reasonable price, and a number of visiting musicians have offered to give an Evening of Music to help purchase the instrument and also to contribute to the local Red Cross funds.

Mr. Lawrence Strauss, the tenor, Mr. Isia, Russian pianist, and Signor Antonio de Grasse, violinist, who have been in Carmel this summer, have arranged to give a concert on Saturday evening, August 3, at Arts and Crafts Hall. A splendid program has already been prepared.

Miss Therese Ehrman will be accompanist.

St. Anne's Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. W. C. Watts next Thursday after-noon at 3 o'clock.

AMERICAN NAVY ELIMINATES WASTE

SLICING BACON ON BATTLESHIP

HOW THEY PEEL POTATOES ABOARD SHIP

FACKIES in the American navy are classed as the best fed body of men in the world. In the ship's galleys every effort is made to eliminate waste.

In the upper photo one of the cooks on the North Dakota is operating a meat slicer that cuts bacon with the least possible wastage.

Fat is fuel for fighters. Bacon is badly needed in the allied armies and navies. The allied needs in pork products are 150,000,000 pounds monthly, three times as much as before the war.

Another waste eliminator on the North Dakota is the potato peeler, shown in the lower photo. Nothing is lost except the actual potato skin.

There is a sufficient quantity of potatoes in America for greater use in every home and for all needs of army and navy. Eat more potatoes, eat less wheat.

Evening of Dancing
an Artistic Success

Jeannette Hoagland with her Woodland Dancers scored two artistic successes on Saturday and Monday evenings at the Forest Theatre. The latter evening's event was for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The dancers representing the freedom of the modern school, with the background of trees, sky, and silvered moon, seemed almost non-liturgical, to spring from the earth, as it were, and gave those in attendance two hours of spontaneous art.

The opening scene revealed a woodland nymphs' garden, where sleeping flowers were awakened by a gorgeous fairy, Constance Heron. She seemed to bring with her entrance much of the joy and untamed grace of those beings who dwell in trees and bathe in dew.

The second act opened with a flash of scarlet across the boards. Irene Gould in the "Neapolitan Tarantella" made her expressive little body a fine medium for developing the fiery spirit of this dance.

Inherent with the courtesy and chivalry of the olden days was the Gavotte, and it was given a most original setting.

Some fitting phrases of Sinding's "Rustle of Spring," and Jeannette Hoagland stepped out robed in white, and gave us what Spring meant to her.

Schubert's "Moment Musical" displayed the talents of Naodine De Vega, Mary Falkner and Irene Gould.

Valentine McGillicuddy, lithe, slender, entered to music by Greig. Her "Dance Caprice" was elfin-like, with a touch of Nature's virginity and abandon.

Perhaps the most generally popular number was "A Wasted Summer" by Jeannette Hoagland and Jean Jacques Pfister.

Opal Heron was the very Psyche of "Indian Summer." She was more than a dancer; she was a dayad, bringing gifts from a lost world.

The technique of dancing was shown to splendid advantage in the "Waltz from Faust Ballet."

Alice MacDougal lent a pleasing variation with an "Orientale" interpretation.

The "Greek Boy at Play" revealed Miss Hoagland in a stimulating surprise.

Tranquil and serenely restful was the "Pastoral," by six young ladies.

The programme closed with a "Reverie" by Katharine Cooke and Jeannette Hoagland.

The program was given artistic distinctiveness with the piano music rendered by Warren D. Allen; his rare touch and thorough musicianship was equal almost to a complete orchestra.

A number not on the program, but which aroused enthusiasm, was the harp solo by Mrs. J. V. Christy.

WEEKLY GREETING

If we believe that the liberty and justice that prevail under this flag of ours are competent to bless mankind and bring in a day of loftier and happier life for all the world, there opens before us now the opportunity to testify our belief.—Elihu Root.

Red Cross Notes

The Carmel Red Cross work rooms will be open every afternoon, except Saturday. The wool for sweaters and material for boys' blouse suits have arrived. Those wishing to make these suits at home will please come to rooms for instructions.

Carmel's revised quota for things to be ready by October 1, is:

25 boys' blouse suits, 75 children's petticoats, 50 pairs socks, 75 sweaters. The quota for gauze dressings will be announced later.

Visitors in Carmel, away from their home chapters, are invited to visit and work at local headquarters. There should be no vacation from this great work.

The annual moving-picture show under the auspices of the Carmel Red Cross chapter and by the courtesy of the Manzanita Club and the Carmel Hall Association, will be given tonight. Clever Ann Pennington is the film star in "The Little Soldier Girl." There should be a packed house.

Henry P. Davidson, Chairman of the War Council, says, among other things, growing out of his recent visit to Europe:

"Our Home Communication Service has just been fully organized. It searches for American soldiers in all the hospitals, writes letters for them, and to any man, sick or well, offers home help in whatever form it may be needed."

Twenty dollars was realized from last Thursday night's dance, and Miss McLean has turned the coin over to Red Cross. The hall was donated by the Arts and Crafts Club, and the musicians contributed their services. Another dance will be given at the same place on Thursday, August 1.

POLITICAL NOTES

Registration for the county and state election has been resumed here at the Pine Cone and J. W. Hand offices. Registration for the Primary closes on July 27.

A. J. Mason, a resident of Monterey for fifteen years, and successful business man, has been induced to enter the race for Justice of the Peace of Monterey Township, which embraces Carmel. This will make it a three-cornered contest, and a hard one, as all the aspirants are making a vigorous campaign to win at the primary or get on the November ballot.

The many woman voters of Carmel will be interested in the candidacy of Mrs. Albert W. Holbrook, of San Jose, who announces that she will contest with Senator M. B. Johnson and Representative E. A. Hayes for the Republican nomination for Congress. Dr. J. L. D. Roberts and Hugh S. Hersman are Democratic candidates.

$1.50 pays for the Pine Cone for a year. Send it to a relative or a friend who is interested in Carmel and its doings.

"Carmel Certainly Fosters the Arts"

We copy the following from a letter just received from Arthur Mailland, manager, director and leading actor in the St. Francis Little Theatre:

"What do I think of Carmel? So much has been written of its charm, and so many beautiful scenes have been given to the public by the gifted artists who congregate there, that there is little left for me to say.

"Perhaps the greatest compliment I can pay it is that notwithstanding all I have seen and read, I am constantly meeting with surprises as its beauty dawns upon me, and I am daily finding delight as well as peace and rest in its atmosphere.

"Carmel certainly fosters the arts, and the performance of "Pygmalion and Galatea," which I had the good fortune of witnessing in your picturesque Forest Theatre was worthy of its artistic environment. Its lighting and setting was especially pleasing.

"The future of the St. Francis Little Theatre is very promising, particularly so considering war conditions. "All work and no play, makes Jack a dull boy" is a proverb pretty well recognized, and there are many "doing their bit" for the cause right here at home who need relaxation, and the St. Francis Little Theatre in its endeavor to meet this need provide a class of entertainment which is appreciated by all lovers of the drama.

"Our repertoire for the coming season will contain the best of over 400 plays submitted to me since March by local playwrights, which will be heard for the first time. Our Little Theatre is unlike the majority of Little Theatres, in that our plays are produced by professionals, not amateurs. Altogether I look for a very prosperous season. Our subscription list at present writing, two months before our opening, numbers nearly twice as many as at any time last year."
