We May Double Our Subscription

It is not improbable that by Saturday next Carmel will double its $20,000 Fourth Liberty Loan quota, as it did the Third Loan.

Up to last night the amount of bonds subscribed for here had reached about $35,000, with additional subscriptions promised.

Those who have already subscribed and feel that it would be a big honor for Carmel to double its quota, should make an effort to purchase another bond.

A list has been made of those able to buy who have not bought and of those who have not bought according to their means. They will be waited upon by a committee and given an opportunity to make good. Failure to do so will result in their being halted before the County Defense Council at Salinas to explain.

ANNUAL MEETING NOTICE

THE ANNUAL MEETING of Carmel Chapter A. R. C. will be held on Wednesday, October 23, at 2 p.m., in the Forest Theatre, for the election of a Board of Directors, consideration of and action upon reports, and transaction of such other business as may properly come before the Chapter.

Everyone who has paid one dollar or more is a member and is URGED TO BE PRESENT.

David Prince certainly made good as a four-minute speaker at the movies Saturday night. His delivery was good, he told some essential facts, and his talk helped to sell bonds this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott, late of Calcutta, are here from Santa Cruz, guests of the Hutchinsons at the White cottage.

Mrs. W. H. Wyman is again occupying her cottage here, having returned a few days ago from Omaha.

During the absence from the city of Mrs. E. K. deSable, the duties of Civilian Relief will be attended to by Rev. S. C. Thomas and G. F. Beardsley.

Mrs. A. A. Wilson and family who were here from Piedmont last spring, are again visiting here, occupying the Gift cottage.

So many inquiries have been made as to when construction of "The Ralph Chandler Memorial Library" will begin, that it should again be stated that nothing in the way of building can be done until after the war, at least.

Pete Hanna, ground man in the Aviation Service, located at San Diego, was a visitor here last week. He has trained off about a ton, and is now quite an active young man.

Miss Isabel Logie is here from Berkeley. Her many friends will be glad to know that she intends to spend the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Overstreet are registered at the Monte Verde. Mr. Overstreet is a brother of the Pine Cone editor.

Mrs. Scofield was a visitor here last week. Her son, Olin, whom the boys called "Indian," is now in the Navy, and was last heard from at Guam.

Mrs. J. E. Beck is home from Danville, Pa. We are glad to report that her nephew, Cameron Waite, was gassed, not "seriously wounded."

Instead of Italy, Perry Newberry is in France, and on the 12th of September proceeded to the firing line.

Miss Martha Walter, the noted artist, who has been here several months, departed for San Francisco yesterday morning, where she will remain some time before going East.

George Seideneck, Louis Narvaez and William Turner went to Salinas on Monday for Exemption Board physical examination.

City taxes will soon be due—October 22. They are payable in one installment. Pay up promptly. Take no chance on your name appearing on the delinquent tax list.

"Bobby" Norton is at Camp Fremont. He leaves soon for Waco, Tex., to continue his course in military training for a commission.

Misses Ruby and Hester Walsler of Palo Alto are in the Young cottage for a fortnight. They are daughters of Mrs. Walsler, who is a member of the Duveneck household.

Mrs. J. V. Christy and children arrived here from San Jose on Saturday for a brief visit. The San Jose schools are closed on account of the Spanish influenza.

Arthur E. Donnelly, the genial movie box-office man, went to the city on business last Sunday.

Mrs. L. C. Hamilton, all the way from Morristown, N. J., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. B. C. Bunting.

Many Carmel friends are much concerned over the reported serious illness of Dan Nolan, the Monterey musician.

The Clampett family, well known here, has five service stars. The father and three sons are in France with the Grizzlies and two others boys are in the Aviation service.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

Makes Bond Buying Easy

A new plan of partial payments has been adopted by the Treasury Department, which gives a better distribution than hertofore of the installments.
 The initial payment will be 10 per cent; the second, Nov.
 21, twenty per cent; the third, December 19, twenty per cent; the fourth, Jan. 16, twenty per cent, and the fifth and last, Jan. 30, thirty per cent.
 Thus for a $50 bond you pay $5, $10, $10, $10, $15.

A "TIME-PURCHASE PLAN" FOR TRACTOR BUYERS

By E. J. WICKSON, Editor Pacific Rural Press (formerly Dean of the College of Agriculture, University of California)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10—A plan for financing the purchase by farmers of tractors and other kinds of power farming machinery recently came to my attention which it seems to me will be of great assistance in the present drive for greater production of food from our farms.
 The plan referred to is that of the Western Farm Credit Company of San Francisco and it is simply an adaptation to the farmer's requirements of the time-payment plans already widely used in selling automobiles, pianos and many other articles.

NOTES CARRIED BY CREDIT COMPANY

The farmer using the plan selects the particular tractor or truck or thresher or feed chopper or other piece of machinery he is buying and pays a certain amount in cash, giving to the dealer, by whom the sale is made, his note for the balance of the purchase price. The credit company then takes this note over from the dealer and attends to the collection, giving the dealer the cash. The plan applies to all tested and approved makes of tractors, the company furnishing the money having no interest in any particular tractor.
 The necessary note and contract forms are provided, free of charge, by the credit company, which makes a small charge for collecting and cashing the farmer's note.
 The plan is of mutual helpfulness. It gives the farmer his machinery at once, enabling him to put it to work earning dividends for him while it is being paid for. It gives the dealer his cash, enabling him to keep his capital free for use in his business, and also enabling him to do a much larger business than would be possible if he sold on an "all cash" basis.

This plan supplements and does not compete with the service rendered by the local banks. Banks are limited by law in the amount of money they can put out in any one class of investment, and while they have been giving much assistance to tractor buyers, they have not been able to meet the demand at all seasons of the year and still provide for the needs of their other customers. Furthermore, banks prefer short-time loans, whereas, a full twelve-months or two-season period seems necessary in buying tractors. Also, it has been proven advisable, in transactions of this kind, to divorce the financing and collecting features from the sales feature. "Getting the paper out of town" results in more harmonious relations for all parties.

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR HELP PRODUCE IT

All of us must give every possible assistance at this time to help win the war.
 We are told that food will do it, and tractors and other power machinery will help produce that food. With this plan in effect no responsible farmer need complain of the shortage of help. His local dealer, to show his patriotism, will meet him half way and help him to make use of the Western Farm Credit Company's plan, and thus one more blow will be struck at the Kaiser and his Huns.

ARMY PIGEONS GOING TO FRONT

Carrier pigeons are a valuable factor in the operation of all the allies, never failing to carry a message safely and quickly from the front unless actually killed by shell fire.

They are used at the most critical stages of battles, when all wire communication has been stopped and the barrage is too thick for runners.

Here is shown a motor transport formerly a London bus, loading up with carriers to go to the British front. The casualties among the birds average 2 per cent. They are wounded by enemy shells, attacked by hawks, and suffer from gas.

They live in gas-proof baskets and when gassed are treated at a hospital.
 There is also a prison cote for captured enemy birds.

A very tiny share of your Fourth Liberty Loan subscription will go to the pigeon service, but none will be more efficiently spent.

epidemics of influenza have visited know that this first epidemic brought here from Valencia.

Since that time there have numerous epidemics of the dis-In 1859 and 1890 an epidemic spread somewhere in the spread first to Russia and over practically the entire civworld. Three years later there was another flare-up of the disease.

Both times the epidemic spread widely over the United States.

"Although the present epidemic is called 'Spanish influenza,' there is no reason to believe that it originated in Spain. Some writers who have studied the question believe that the epidemic came from the Orient and they call attention to the fact that the Germans mention the disease as occurring along the eastern front in the summer and fall of 1917."

How can "Spanish Influenza" be recognized?

"There is as yet no certain way in which a single case of 'Spanish influenza' can be recognized. On the other hand, recognition is easy where there is a group of cases. In contrast to the outbreaks of ordinary coughs and colds, which usually occur in the cold months, epidemics of influenza may occur at any season of the year.
Thus the present epidemic raged most intensely in Europe in May, June and July. Moreover, in the case of ordinary colds, the general symptoms (fever, pain, depression) are by no means as severe or as sudden in their onset as they are in influenza. Finally, ordinary colds do not spread through the community so rapidly or so extensively as does influenza.

"In most cases a person taken sick with influenza feels sick rather suddenly. He feels weak, has pains in the eyes, ears, head or back, and may be sore all over. Many patients feel dizzy, some vomit. Most of the patients complain of feeling chilly, and with this comes a fever in which the temperature rises to 100 to 104. In most cases the pulse remains relatively slow.

"In appearance one is struck by the fact that the patient looks sick. His eyes and the inner side of his eyelids may be slightly 'bloodshot,' or 'congested,' as the doctors say. There may be running from the nose, or there may be some cough. These signs of a cold may not be marked; nevertheless the patient looks and feels very sick.

"In addition to the appearance and the symptoms as already described, examination of the patient's blood may aid the physician in recognizing 'Spanish influenza,' for it has been found that in this disease the number of white corpuscles shows little or no increase above the normal. It is possible that the laboratory investigations now being made through the National Research Council and the United States Hygienic Laboratory will furnish a more certain way in which individual cases of this disease can be recognized."

What is the course of the disease?
Do people die of it?

"Ordinarily, the fever lasts from three to four days and the patient recovers. But while the proportion of deaths in the present epidemic has generally been low, in some places the outbreak has been severe and deaths have been numerous. When death occurs it is usually the result of a complication."

What causes the disease and how is it spread?

"Bacteriologists who have studied influenza epidemics in the past have found in many of the cases a very small rod-shaped germ called, after its discoverer, Pfeiffer's bacillus. In other cases of apparently the same kind of disease there were found pneumococci, the germs of lobar pneumonia. Still others have been caused by strepto-cocci, and by others germs with long names.
"No matter what particular kind of germ causes the epidemic. It is now believed that influenza is always spread from person to person, the germs being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus, expelled by coughing or sneezing, forceful talking, and the like by one who already has the germs of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing, or from careless people who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk.

As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others."

What should be done by those who catch the disease?

"It is very important that every person who becomes sick with influenza should go home at once and go to bed.
This will help keep away dangerous complications and will, at the same time, keep the patient from scattering the disease far and wide. It is highly desirable that no one be allowed to sleep in the same room with the patient. In fact, no one but the nurse should be allowed in the room.

"If there is cough and sputum or running of the eyes and nose, care should be taken that all such discharges are collected on bits of gauze or rag or paper napkins and burned.
If the patient complains of fever and headache, he should be given water to drink, a cold compress to the forehead and a light sponge. Only such medicine should be given as is prescribed by the doctor. It is foolish to ask the druggist to prescribe and may be dangerous to take the so-called 'safe, sure and harmless' remedies advertised by patent medicine manufacturers.

"If the patient is so situated that he can be attended only by some one who must also look after others in the family, it is advisable that such attendant wear a wrapper, apron or gown over the ordinary house clothes while in the sick room and slip this off when leaving to look after the others.

"Nurses and attendants will do well to guard against breathing in dangerous disease germs by wearing a simple fold of gauze or mask while near the patient."

Will a person who has had influenza before catch the disease again?

"It is well known that an attack of measles or scarlet fever or smallpox usually protects a person against another attack of the same disease. This appears not to be true of 'Spanish influenza.' According to newspaper reports the King of Spain suffered an attack of influenza during the epidemic thirty years ago, and was again stricken during the recent outbreak in Spain."

How can one guard against influenza?

"In guarding against disease of all kinds, it is important that the body be kept strong and able to fight off disease germs. This can be done by having a proper proportion of work, play and rest, by keeping the body well clothed, and by eating sufficient wholesome and properly selected food. In connection with diet, it is well to remember that milk is one of the best all-around foods obtainable for adults as well as children. So far as a disease like influenza is concerned, health authorities everywhere recognize the very close relation between its spread and overcrowded homes. While it is not always possible, especially in times like the present, to avoid such overcrowding, people should consider the health danger and make every effort to reduce the home overcrowding to a minimum. The value of fresh

HOOVER WARNS, MUST SAVE FOOD

Victory and Peace Talk Increase Need for Conservation.

Issued by United States Food Administration.

"Grave danger" to the effectiveness of the new food conservation program is feared as a result of the victories on the western front and the capitulation of Bulgaria, according to a message received by the California Food Administration from Herbert Hoover.

Warning the nation against a relaxation of effort on the one hand, and appealing for even greater conservation of food, Hoover said:

"The victories do not increase our food supplies. On the contrary, peace will add to the burden thrown upon our resources because the people who make peace must be fed.

"We are pledged to deliver the Allies 15,000,000 tons of foodstuffs prior to next June. To achieve this it will require constant conservation. The second year of our participation in the war brings us a broader plan to effect the imperative savings. Not so much emphasis on this particular item and that particular item of foods, but a steady pressure of careful and thrifty conservation, along with the elimination of all waste. We cannot hope to increase our last year's food exports to the Allies without curtailing our own consumption.

"With the approach of winter peace and rumors of peace will be talked of, and with this there is an impulse to let up a little in all our war food program. This way danger lies. Not until the war is won can we afford to let our efforts lax, even temporarily.

"Our reserves must be great enough to protect us against possible short crops; great enough to make up for the shortened production as men are drawn from the farms to serve in the army; great enough to maintain supplies for our army and navy and the Allies no matter how gravely our shipping may be harassed in some evil month by submarines.

"We must drive home to our people the absolute necessity of greater conservation, more self-sacrifice individually, and more intense economy in the consumption and handling of foodstuffs if we are to meet the demands laid upon us by the war."

air through open windows cannot be over emphasized.

"When crowding is unavoidable, as in street cars, care should be taken to keep the face so turned as not to inhale directly the air breathed out by another person.

"It is especially important to beware of the person who coughs or sneezes, without covering his mouth and nose. It also follows that one should keep out of crowds and stuffy places as much as possible, keep homes, offices and workshops well aired, spend some time out of doors each day, walk to work if at all practicable—in short, make every possible effort to breathe as much pure air as possible.

"In all health matters follow the advice of your doctor and obey the regulations of your local and state health officers."

Hardships ignored, Wounded Man Tells Mother—Don't Let Them Hinder Your War Work

By Mrs. Hazel Pedlar Faulkner

From a hospital somewhere in France a wounded American has written to his parents:

"We are going through hardships, but the boys are taking hold in the good old American way."

What a message for those of us who have remained at home! What a challenge to the vast army of men and women who are in the home guard, carrying on in the thousand and one ways that the exigencies of war have brought upon us!

"We are going through hardships."

We can believe that, when we recall the dauntless charges which our boys have been making over there, and the daily lengthening casualty lists which are resulting from their fearless devotion to the task that is set before them.

We know they are going through hardships, when we stop to think of the hundreds upon hundreds who are wounded, and who for the time being at least need care and attention.

FIENDISH ENEMY ADDS TERRORS

Of course they are going through hardships, those boys from your home and mine. Hardships are a part of war. They are the inevitable result of a state of war. And when war is waged by an enemy so skilled in all the fiendish deviltries in which the Germans have indulged, they are the inescapable portion of every soldier participating.

But hardships are not the part of the war these soldiers of ours are thinking most about. They are but the incidents in the day's work.

"The boys are taking hold in the good old American way."

Could there be a better statement of their manner of facing what comes to them? Could there be a more definite course of action prescribed for those of us at home during these days which test the mettle of our souls?

The time for our message to the boys has come again. The Fourth Liberty Loan is to be our response to this wounded soldier's challenge.

MAKE YOUR ANSWER NOW

Are we going to take hold in the "good old American way?"

We have not had to go through hardships,—ours have been an easier part. We have known little of sacrifice or deprivation. Compared with the offering of our boys, we have done nothing as yet. And now, here is the challenge sounded to us.

The good old American way is all that is asked of us. What is that way?

You must frame the answer, mothers and sisters of the west. Yours is an important part in the reply which the nation will make to the boys overseas. There is not one of us who would not spare her son if she could—yes, even spare some other mother's son the pain and hardship he must bear. We are not asked to do that. We could not, though we would.

But we can make his part easier to bear, we can go with him through the hardships, by lending completely of our money.

There is no longer need to explain what a Liberty Loan is. There is no more necessity for pointing out reasons for participation in it.

Birthday of Father Serra

The 205th anniversary of the birthday of Junipero Serra will occur on Saturday, November 24. A plan is under way to make this event an important annual affair in Carmel. Pilgrimages are to be organized in various parts of the State to visit the grave of Serra here.

A plot of ground on a hill overlooking the Mission Church, will be set aside, where will be planted a grove of pines (now three years old), the seed of which were brought from the Island of Majorca, Spain, the birthplace of California's first civilizer.

The Arts and Crafts Club is sending invitations to the Landmarks League, the California Pioneers, Native Sons and Daughters, church organizations, historical societies, etc., to meet in Carmel to formulate plans for an adequate celebration.

Nothing To It

Mr. W. L. Overstreet, Editor, Carmel Pine Cone.

On Friday afternoon last there were gathered by special invitation a number of the leading members of most of the organizations of Carmel. To this meeting were read alarming newspaper articles in regard to the so-called Spanish influenza. And, after a discussion, a resolution was passed to the effect that all schools, the moving-picture theatre, churches, and other places of public gathering be closed indefinitely beginning Saturday at midnight. This time was set in order to permit the movies to open that night.

This almost private meeting is admitted by its promoters as not legal and that they had no authority to enforce the provisions of the resolution. (Whether it was unlawful and the promoters subject to legal action, is a matter under investigation.)

No one seems to know the exact wording of the resolution. There was no secretary appointed, no records kept, and no one appointed to give notice of the action of the meeting.

The main thing that has been accomplished is to worry a lot of people who from the apparent official character of the meeting naturally supposed that something awful was going on to call for such hurried and drastic measures.

Carmel-by-the-Sea is an incorporated city, with a full organization of every kind to take charge of any situation of public danger.

If any danger exists—as suggested by this meeting—it would have been the duty of the Commissioner of Health to act; he was not even invited to attend this meeting, and the one member of the Health Board invited to be present voted against the resolution.

If the Commissioner of Health is not doing his duty, he should be impeached. On the contrary, he has recently received definite instruction from the State Board of Health not to do the very things which this resolution calls for, "unless there is evidence of a rapid spread of the disease."

At the time of the meeting there was not a single case in Carmel, and no case reported closer than seventy-five miles. The whole affair would be comical but for the fact that the damage done to the health and good name of Carmel by such unauthorized action is very great, and that definite steps should be taken by those in authority to prevent the recurrence of such affairs.

WILLIAM P. SILVA

ANNUAL MEETING NOTICE

STOCKHOLDERS OF THE Carmel Hall Association are hereby notified that the Annual Meeting of the Carmel Hall Association will be held in Carmel Hall on Thursday, October 31, 1918, at 8 p.m. of 17 2t J. E. Beck, Secretary

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

LETTERS from our boys in the trenches and from the women in canteen and other war work, all bring to us the same message—SEND US NEWS FROM HOME.

World news is all right, but OUR BOYS want NEWS OF THIS TOWN. They want the home newspaper. Publishers are prevented from sending their papers free to anyone, even boys in the service. Consequently a national movement has been started by Col. William Boyce Thompson of New York, who is acting as President of the Home Paper Service of America to give the boys what they are calling for. Every community is joining the movement. Let us see that our boys are not forgotten.

Send to the publisher of this newspaper whatever amount of money you can—5 cents or $50.00. We will publish a list each week of those contributing, and the amounts contributed.

Every cent received will be used to send this paper to our boys at the front. If at the end of the war, there is any surplus, it will be turned over to the local Red Cross Committee.

There is no profit in this to the publisher—even in normal times, subscriptions are not sold at a profit. With war prices prevailing, and the high rate of postage on papers sent to France, our cost will scarcely be covered by our full subscription price.

Remember that over in France, some brave soldier or sailor from this town—perhaps even some splendid woman working within sound of the guns—is depending on you to "KEEP THE HOME LOVE KINDLED."

They are calling to YOU from "Over There" GIVE WHAT YOU CAN

"If the folks back home fall short of the billions you need, Mr. President, call on us for the balance. We like our pay—but if we have to, we can go without it.
Yours for victory, A. E. F."

(From "The Stars and Stripes.")

No Infuenza Here

There is no occasion for Carmel residents to be alarmed by the action of the meeting held at the City Hall last Friday.

Such recommendations as were made regarding the closing of the school and places where people are wont to gather in more or less large number, were in the nature of precaution. The meeting was not official.

The fact that there are cases of Spanish influenza in Monterey, Salinas and Sprrckels, and that there are people here who have been exposed to the disease in other cities, should make us very careful.

As yet not a single case has shown itself in Carmel, but nevertheless, Health Officer W. T. Kibbler has the matter of prevention and cure well in hand, and has appointed the following as committee to assist in the work: T. B. Reardon, M. J. Murphy, W. P. Silva, A. Vachell, Mrs. W. T. Dummage, W. L. Overstreet, Miss Cora A. Burns and R. G. Leidig.

The following affairs have been postponed:

Reading at the Book Shop.
Class in Psychology.
Seligman Piano Concert.

A Worthy Candidate

C. C. Baker, of Salinas, one of the candidates nominated at the recent primary for District Attorney, was a Carmel visitor a few days ago.

Mr. Baker's life is typical of the self-made man. To obtain means to gain his professional education he began in his eleventh year to labor on the farm, in railroad construction, in the timber. He realized his ambition, and graduated from the law department of Stanford University. Shortly after, he hung out his shingle in Salinas and quickly won the confidence and esteem of the people. He has been active in civic affairs, and recently has worked hard and long with the Exemption Board, in the Red Cross, and for the Liberty Loans.

Mr. Baker has made no promises as to appointments. He makes this pledge, however: If elected he will conduct the office economically, and will enforce the law impartially. adv
