Carmel Twice Over the Top

And It Was Done Without Coercion

The Six Billion Loan was a success

The State of California oversubscribed its quota.

Monterey County oversubscribed its quota.

The Pine Cone's suggestion that Carmel-by-the-Sea endeavor to double its $20,000 quota is an accomplished fact. We have subscribed $40,000 and more.

On the morning of the last day of the drive we had purchased $37,000 worth of bonds. All during the day sales of $50 to $500 were made, until at 5 p.m. we were safely and doubly over the top.

This money was subscribed here without coercion or threat and with little solicitation.

Of the total amount of bonds purchased by the residents well known here of Carmel, $11,000 was taken out at the Pine Cone office.

Carmel is a pretty good place to reside in, to visit in, or to do anything else that is good.

The following is from the Monterey Cypress:

JUST AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

Carmel is one of the fortunate communities that have escaped the spanish influenza. There is not a case in that town. Two weeks ago, when the disease began to show itself in other cities, places of public gathering in Carmel were voluntarily closed.

Later, the Board of Health passed a resolution that, inasmuch as the School Trustees had closed the public school, the school remain closed. There is no town quarantine, no inspection of mcoming persons, and no foolish regulations of any kind.

WEEKLY GREETING

A work that requires no sacrifice does not count for much in fulfilling God's plans. But what is commonly called sacrifice is the best, happiest use of one's self and one's resources. —Samuel Chapman Armstrong.

Red Cross Notes

"Will you please get me another bucket of water?" asked a woman of an officer who had knocked over her scrubbing water in a London hospital. "Madam, I am an officer," replied the man. "I beg your pardon," said the woman, "I am only a Duchess "

As soon as the Pacific Division receives from chapters the soldier quotas, the Xmas boxes will be sent out. It is necessary that boxes reach chapters not later than November 1, so all possible haste should be made in ascertaining the number of enlisted men in each territory. Only holders of Xmas Parcel Labels, which the soldiers are to send home, will be given a box or allowed to send a package.

Later:-The boxes, measuring 3x4x9 inches, have arrived here.

With influenza in epidemic form prevalent in the Pacific Division, the Red Cross faces a civilian as well as a military emergency. The call for women with any kind of nursing experience, and those who will go into households and take charge of sick families, are sadly needed. All who desire to render this service are directed to the nearest Red Cross head quarters.

"Before You Go" is the title of a book which the Home Service sections will distribute. It contains a carefully grouped list of matters which the enlisted man should discuss with his family before he departs on the Great Adventure.

Funds raised by American children will finance the France American Children's Hospital at Bor deaux, built by the fied Cross.

Still It Grows

The local "Home Paper Fund" continues to grow. The total subscribed has reached $8.25-which pays for five yearly and one six months' subscription to the Pine Cone. A number of Carmel boys in the military service are still without the home paper.

The following is from one of the "subscribers":

Mr. W. L. Overstreet,

Editor, Carmel Pine Cone. My dear sir:

I am writing to express my appreciation of the best and most welcome newspaper to me that comes into camp. I find it most interesting. I am always glad to get news from the home town.

Thanks for the Pine Cone. Leon Narvaez, Camp Kearney

Here are American troops, blanket rolls on backs, rifles in hand, debarking in England from the transport on which they made a safe journey from some "Atlantic Port".

So continuously do American soldiers pass through villages of southeastern England, en route from some British or Scotch port where they have left their ships to some channel port to complete their voyage to France on the small cross-channel steamers, that the residents call it the "endless line".

OBEY ORDERS!

NEW FOOD CARD FOR EVERY HOME

Ten thousand women volunteers, wearing the shield of the United States Food Administration, in the next few weeks, will distribute the new conser vation "Home Cards" to more than 650,000 California homes. The new "Home Cards" bear the en-

The new "Home Cards" bear the enlarged conservation program for this year in detail, and set forth definitely the duties of each family and member thereof in saving the 17,500,000 tons of foodstuffs which America must send to her fighting men and to the Allies before June 30th, next.

Danger lies in relaxation of effort in food saving, and our victories do not increase our available food supplies. We are pledged to export 5,000,000 tons more than last year, and this extra tonnage must be conserved in the homes, a task which will require unceasing and vigilant conservation.

On each individual, and particularly on the woman in the home, rests the responsibility of saving food to meet the needs of the Allies.

BUY VICTORY MIXED FLOUR The Food Administration particular ly urges housewives to use Victory Mixed flour, which all grocers have been instructed to carry in stock.

been instructed to carry in stock. Use of the Victory Mixed flour will save time, labor and inconvenience, and the waste incidental to mixing straight wheat flour with the necessary substitutes. No substitutes need be purchased when Victory Mixed flour is bought. It will be found that Victory Mixed flour will prove most satisfactory when used according to recipes calling for straight flour.

LOWER PRICE FOR CREAM Milk distributors of San Francisco and the bay cities have materially re duced the price on sweet cream. Quarter plais have been reduced two cents and half pints four cents.

The decrease followed the Food Administration's recent order prohibiting distributors from selling sweet cream containing more than 20 per cent but ter fat for household, restaurant of other uses.

Los Angeles, as one of the big distributing centers, has indicated that a new downward scale of prices will be put into effect.

The new prices in San Francisco and vicinity. and elsewhere, will be subject monthly to slight advance or de cline according to the advance or de cline of the butter market, as butter is the basis of cream values.

There is a bright side to this sugar shortage which has reduced our ration to a maximum of three teaspoonfuls ³ day for table use.

We thought we needed sugar to make our food taste the way it should. Now that we have not more than two poinds of sugar per person each month, we have been forced to de celop our tastes in other directions it has taken only a few short week for us to realize what delicious flavers we had missed.
