A Fine Lecture

In his lecture at Monterey last Friday evening Dr. Preston W. Search fully sustained his reputation as one of our foremost public speakers. Of the lecture, the Cypress says:

"His delineation of the chief characteristics of American lecturers, whom he has known in a long career as their friend and associate, was interesting in a high degree. Among them was Wendell Phillips, William Lloyd Garrison, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Doctor Holmes, Henry Ward Beecher, Mary E. Livermore and Dr. Anna Shaw."

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Platt and Mrs. B. Helyer of Los Gatos, Mrs. M. Whitthorn and Mrs. M. A. Blake of Oakland, and Mrs. Louise Louis of Watsonville are visiting Carmel for rest and recreation after a strenuous season of fruit packing at the Los Gatos Cannery, of which Mr. Platt is manager.

Pine Needles

The word "next" in our last week's item about the change in time caused some confusion. The change—moving the hands back one hour—takes place at midnight on Saturday, October 25.

Get acquainted with our policies and our merchandise—Holman's, Pacific Grove.

Frank Holton, an old-time Monterey county man, brother of Chester O. Holton, who lives here, passed away in Salinas last week. He was 67 years old. Until recently he was in charge of the Winham ranch in Carmel Valley. He was a member of the I.O.O.F.

Mrs. Francis C. Pudan and her daughter Ruth took a week-end trip to San Jose last Friday.

Sam Beavers, squirrel inspector, is going to round up the the pests in the Point Lobos and Highlands section this week. He has been doing effective work in the Salinas Valley.

There is considerable speculation amongst property owners as to the location of the proposed new hotel here. Some have it that the site is to be down near the mouth of Carmel River, while others are sure the new hostelry will be erected near Reamer's Point. An up-town location has also been suggested.

You are protected by a $10,000 accident bond when you travel in Carmel Garage Stages. We are responsible.—G. O. Goad.

Percy Parkes and family of Los Angeles are now residing here. They have the Dr. Harrison cottage. Mr. Parkes, who is a brother of Miss Helen Parkes, will engage in the building and contracting business here.

The J. G. Hoopers expect to be down from the city shortly to plan and consult about their place to be built on their recently acquired property at Thirteenth Avenue and Camino Real.

ROOLEVELT WEEK

October 20-27

I t is not only a duty but a privilege for those who loved T. R., the Man, to subscribe to the fund to be gathered throughout the nation for the Roosevelt Memorial.

In Carmel a considerable amount has already been contributed. Beginning next Monday the formal effort to get our quota will begin. Subscribe at the Pine Cone office or pay Miss M. R. McDowell.

The Werner family, who have resided here nearly a year, occupying the Waterbury cottage, have gone to Ocean Park to live.

Mrs. Harold Stearns (Alice MacDougal) is here from New York to remain some time. Mr. Stearns, who is an Eastern literary man, will be here in February.

The attractive home of Mrs. Charles W. Clark at Pebble Beach is nearing completion. It is of Spanish architecture and has aroused no end of favorable comment. It is built on a rocky eminence, with the forest in the background and a fine outlook on the Bay of Carmel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Smith and children of San Francisco motored from the city last Saturday to visit Mrs. Robert H. Durice, Mr. Smith's sister, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. King are St. Louis relatives of Mrs. M. H. Jaquith now visiting here. Mr. King is a newspaper man, who went abroad with our army. He was in several important engagements and was wounded at Chateau Thierry.

Mrs. F. J. Rogers of San Jose is here for a brief stay. It is nearly two years since she was last here to attend to her local property interests.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gibbons—they of the burros—have returned to San Francisco. Possibly they will return here in the spring to become permanent residents. The burros are wintering at Posts.

Teams are coming from the East, and it is expected that, Canada, England, Mexico and Honolulu are expected to send teams.

For President HIRAM W. JOHNSON

WEEKLY GREETING

If choice must be made between a league of nations and the Constitution of the United States, I am first and last with the Constitution.—Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, Democrat.

OUR THEATRE

The Community Theatre id has the unqualified endorsement of the Pine Cone.

During the past three or four years there has been a noticeable decline in the early local interest and enthusiasm concerning the doings of the Forest Theatre. Much of this luke-warm attitude may be attributed to divided allegiance—too many organizations.

This should not be. The Forest Theater is too important a concern of our community life to be permitted to fall into lassitude and indifference and ultimate desuetude.

A public meeting, with avowed and only object the formation of an effective dramatic organization, would seem to be the logical means of furthering the matter.

THE PITH OF IT

President Wilson, in tackling the high cost of living, said:

"Only by increasing production by rigid economy and saving to the people can we hope for large decrease in the burdensome cost of living now weighs us down."

Despite the fact that the Department of Justice is scurrying about investigating high prices and throwing producers in jail, the President's cure for high prices is the only one. He is with him in his opinion the best economists in America and Europe. The most elementary economics that as long as the public persists in its saving "jag," buying unnecessary luxuries and fastening upon industry a demand more than industry can produce, orbitant prices will prevail.

There is only one way out. That is the President's way. The people must get to save. In order to save they must do without high priced luxuries and live simply. They must increase their savings that the means of production and greater production may be accumulated.

Economists know that the Treasury Department is doing more than the Department of Justice is to bring down prices. The lowly Thrift Stamp War Savings Stamp is the way. Buy them and hold them. Put them first on the family budget. They pay 4 per cent interest compounded every three months. Get the habit of buying them every pay day. They will solve your high cost of living problem.

W. S. S.

The price of a $5 War Savings Stamp this month is $4.21. Buy every week.

Move for Community Theatre

OF the many attractions that have helped to make Carmel unique, foremost is the Forest Theatre. Year after year it has given entertainment to the town and its visitors, and opportunity for the development and display of native dramatic talent. The work has been carried on by the unstinted efforts of small groups and of individuals—to whom all credit.

The time has come, however, when not only the future progress but the very existence of home drama depends upon the entire community assuming the duty and responsibility of operating and directing its own theatre.

The later resident of Carmel has found several dramatic societies contending for honors, and has either taken sides with one of the rivals, or, like the great majority, has, rather than espouse a faction, refused to take and part whatsoever.

The effect is an indifference more paralyzing than open antagonism. To save the theatre from this there is a specific known and voiced by many. Make the Forest Theatre a Community Theatre! Mutual good faith and the slogan "For Carmel" will work a miracle.

In due modesty we can claim a people of artistic inclinations and talents to be found proportionately no where else. We have our writers who can turn playwrights, our painters and architects who can devise and execute costumes and scenery, our own actors and producers, and last, but of much value, our own audiences that can appreciate. If our writers, artists, actors and producers are fired by the convictions that they are working for the honor and the applause of the whole community, and the audience realizing that this is the creation of its fellow-townsmen, we shall set and maintain a standard that will bring glory enough for everyone.

The community spirit is necessary for the success of the theatre, yet remember that the theatre returns measure for measure to the town. If this is your place of business as well as your home, you know that the Forest Theatre is synonymous with Carmel to the outside world, and draws both visitors and permanent residents. If you are an artist, you must be stirred by the opportunity of expressing your art, whatever it is, in one of the phases of the many-sided drama. If you do not act, your children do—a training and joy unexcelled. If you are without talents and without children, you at least have appreciation and public spirit enough to make the opportunity for your neighbor.

If you want to know how much the Forest Theatre means to you and Carmel, just let it cease to exist, as it surely will if you do not rise to this occasion. It is the opportune time for the town to reorganize and marshal all its dramatic interests and forces into one body. Think about it, talk about it, knock it if need be, but some evening let us all get together in a rousing mass meeting and put it over with a bang. The Community Forest Theatre of Carmel.

The following letters will be read with interest:

Carmel, Cal., Oct. 11

Mr. W. L. Overstreet,
Editor, Carmel Pine Cone.

Dear Sir:

The Forest Theatre Society wishes to endorse a movement now afoot to merge all the dramatic interests of Carmel into one common body, and to make the Forest Theatre a true Community Theatre in fact as well as in name.

As this has always been the avowed purpose of our society, it welcomes the revival of the spirit and means to bring it to reality. The Forest Theatre is a unique possession of Carmel and has yielded immeasurable returns of pleasure and profit to the whole community and its guests.

The time has come for the community as such to assume the responsibility of directing its own dramatic activities and its own theatre. To this end, the Forest Theatre Society will transfer its membership, its holdings and good will to the proposed Community Theatre, and urges its members as individuals to give it all aid and encouragement.

For Carmel!

W. L. Overstreet,
Weekly Pine Cone,
Dear Sir:

The Western Drama Society is whole heartedly in favor of the plan to make Carmel's open-air theatre a genuine community theatre, controlled by one organization of Carmelites. To bring about this result, which should insure the continuance and improvement of local dramatic activities, the members of the Western Drama Society are agreed to become a part of and to support generously a true Carmel Theatre Society, which shall present the best our community can give in drama, through the united efforts of our own authors, producers, scenic artists, musicians, costumers, mechanics, business managers and players.

The union of the various dramatic groups in one strong body must be the solution of the Forest Theatre problem, and the only question is a working plan. But success is certain if we all approach the matter with open minds, forgetting our personal preferences for plays and producers; and striving now for one object—a true community theatre. Let that be given our unselfish support. The Western Drama Society will abandon its separate existence and unite loyally in the work decided upon, whatever that work may be, and regardless of individual opinion or advantages.

HERBERT HERON,
Director of the Western Drama Society

THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION.

JAMES SMITHSON, an Englishman, who died in Italy in 1829, left his property to the United States "to found at Washington, under the name of the Smithsonian institution, an establishment for the increase and diffusion of knowledge among men."

"A consultive library of objects" rather than an institution of learning in the nature of a college with a faculty and students, its educational activities are of the very broadest character. The several buildings are located in 38-acre Smithsonian park, the institution also maintaining stations at other widely separated points. Its expeditions, surveys and explorations cover practically every country under the sun.

The Smithsonian park buildings contain collections of the belongings of Presidents Washington, Lincoln and Grant, and the heroes of our army and navy; the costumes worn by the ladies of the white house from 1789; the most complete collection of firearms in the country; extensive exhibits of medals, coins and stamps of historic value; time keeping and musical instruments, graphic arts, textiles, embroideries and what nots; several millions of natural history specimens; more than a million specimens of the world's flora and upwards of 5,000 exhibits of art—while the zoological park, occupying 167 acres in Rock Creek valley (Washington), contains more than 1,400 individual mammals, birds and reptiles.

It is needless to say that this great institution is well and favorably known to men of science the world over, and that those who come to study its wondrous collections are numbered in the millions.
